A GRAND PAGEANT.

The Knights Templar Parade Eclipses Previous Efforts.

The Baked Bean Town Overcrowded With Masons From Every State and Territory.

BOSTON, Mass., Aug. 27.—Seven hundred and fifty thousand people saw the parade of over 25,000 Sir Knights Templar today, and with one accord pronounced it the grandest pageant ever witnessed in Boston.

People were everywhere; in the streets, on the sidewalks, on the roofs of buildings and street cars, and clinging to the tops of telegraph poles when ever the vigilance of the police and linemen was relaxed for a moment; in wagons and drays, filled with seats, in the side streets and on hundreds of grand stands, large and small, along the route.

The clear skies and sunshine of the past two days had given away to a partially clouded sky, but finally the sun broke through the clouds, vigorously endeavoring to drive the mists away.

Although a majority of the Sir Knights spent last night, until a late hour, entertaining friends or being entertained, they were astir early this morning.

Trains from every direction brought thousands of uniformed Templars and their friends to swell the host. At the depots the crowds were of almost suffocating density. From every state commanderies began to arrive at an early hour and thousands of spectators came with them. The streets near the depots echoed with the din of scores of bands and the tramp of arriving knights and their escorts. The railroad men were completely overwhelmed by the magnitude of the crowd.

Everywhere within a radius of twenty miles of the state house, the day is practically a holiday. Most of the factories in near-by cities are closed and the operatives helped to swell the crowds who watched the procession. The police appointments were well nigh perfect.

Shortly before the parade started, platoons of officers cleared every street through which the Sir Knights were to pass and roped them off, and until the last division had passed no traffic of any kind was allowed on those thoroughfares.

The lines of the parade were formed in thirteen divisions in a column of double sections. At 9 o'clock the commanderies of the first division began to gather on the south side of Commonwealth avenue, near Berkeley street, and at about the same hour the other divisions began to take up their positions in the avenue of the Bay district. There was the usual delay consequent to the formation of great processions, but all was in readiness shortly after 10 o'clock and by 10:30 the long line was in motion, the signal for the start being greeted by the cheers and salutes of 10,000 people that gathered near the start.

As the great body of knights moved down Commonwealth avenue the spectacle was an inspiring one. The music of 100 bands and the applause of the thousands of people filled the air. Gaily bedecked horses pranced at the head of each division, while the contrast of the dignified black cloth of the uniforms, of the waving of the rich plumes and the silver and gold emblems which are conspicuous in the Templar's uniform, combined to present a scene that was pleasing and impressive.

STARTLING REVELATION

The Trunk Which Hid Howard Pietzel's Body is Found in Irvington.

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind., Aug. 27.—Detectives Geier and Gary, of Philadelphia, today discovered at Irvington, a suburb of this city, a house in which H. H. Holmes lived three days last October. They found there portions of a trunk in which it is supposed Howard Pietzel's body was conveyed and are now digging in hopes of finding the boy's remains.

COUNTERFEITERS RAIDED.

Eight of a Gang of Fifteen Landed in Jail.

PERRY, Okla., Aug. 27.—Four deputy marshals made a raid on a counterfeiters' den in a cave in the Kaw country yesterday and captured eight of a gang of fifteen, who were at work making counterfeits. Officers have been on the outlook for the gang for six months. The men arrested are, Big Henry, Clark Cross, Old Man Cross, Joe Roberts, Charles Boyd, Shorty Berry and two others. The officers are in pursuit of the seven men who escaped.

WAS POSTED IN PARIS.

The Infernal Machine Which Injured M. Jodkowitz.

PARIS, Aug. 27.—The police have definitely ascertained that the letter containing the infernal machine, which exploded in the office of Baron Alphonse de Rothschild on Saturday afternoon, severely injuring his confidential clerk, M. Jodkowitz, was posted in this city.

LAWYERS MEET.

Over Three Hundred of Them Assemble at Detroit.

DETROIT, Aug. 27.—An intellectual looking assembly of 300 leading jurists and members of the bar was present in Y. M. C. A. hall at 10:30 o'clock this morning when President James C. Carter of New York, called to order the eighteenth annual convention of the American Bar association. After thanking the Detroit representatives of the profession for the cordial reception tendered the visitors, the president read a short list of the most noted jurists present, who were invited to seats upon the platform. President Carter then proceeded with the reading of his address.

WOUNDED IN A DUEL.

George Morris and Jose Salsasar Settle a Dispute.

The Weapons Used Were Pistols and the American Fell at the First Shot.

GUADALAJURA, Mex., Aug. 27.—Geo. S Morris, an American mining man, was shot and wounded in a duel at Ameca, a town west of here, by a Spaniard named Jose Salsasar. The two men had a quarrel over a business deal and the Spaniard issued the challenge to fight a duel. Morris accepted and seconds were chosen. The fight took place on the outskirts of the town and at the first shot Morris received a bullet in his breast. He was carried from the field. A strong effort has been made to keep the affair quiet, as the opposition of the authorities to dueling is very pronounced. No arrests have yet been made. Morris came to Mexico two years ago from Pennsylvania.

AN OHIO TRAGEDY.

Three Men Shot During the Course of a Riot.

WAPAKONETA, Ohio, Aug. 27.—3 P. M.—There has been a fearful fight here and the riotous proceedings are still going on. Three men have already been shot and others have been injured in other ways.

THE VICTIMS.

4 P. M.—The names of the victims are Josephus Tiller, shot through the bowels; will die.

Albert Seifert, shot through the arm; not serious.

Oscar Voorhees, shot through the hand.

The men were employed on the water works trenches and yesterday morning they went on a strike and declared that no one should go to work until their demands were satisfied. Some of them went to work at noon today, but were driven out. The contractor ordered Lewis Vanskiver and another party to fill some trenches and cover some pipe in the Second ward.

They began work and a crowd of strikers congregated and commenced beating Vanskiver over the head with clubs and shovel handles, breaking the largest ones by force of the blows. After he had been struck several times he pulled a pistol and fired, with the above result.

THE BOWERS CASE.

The Police Board Will Render a Decision Tomorrow.

The board of safety was in session last night to conclude the examination in the case of Officer Bowers and witnesses were called and examined. The first witness was Mrs. Egg, at whose house it was charged that Officer Bowers had reached in through an open window in the side of the house and caught hold of Miss Lowry, who was sleeping on a lounge or cot just inside the window on the night of June 4, 1895. There were a number of other witnesses examined, but no evidence of a specially interesting character other than that which THE SENTINEL has already given was elicited. The only real evidence in the case is that of Miss Lowry and Officer Bowers, the one indicating the later's guilt and the other his innocence.

The police board completed its examination last evening, but they will not render any decision in the matter until tomorrow.

WOMAN MISSING.

Fears of Foul Play Entertained by Her Friends.

HOUGHTON, Mich., Aug. 27.—Mrs. Philip Schuermann, wife of the manager of the S. Schuerman Brewing company, left the residence of John Nelson, in West Houghton, at 9:30 o'clock last night to walk home, a distance of three and one-half miles. Since then absolutely no trace of her whereabouts has been found and foul play is feared. Searching parties are hunting for clews and the lake may be dragged.

TRAINMEN INJURED.

Engineer Shea and Fireman Larimore Are the Victims.

Patrick Shea, engineer, and Fireman Chas. Larimore were injured yesterday by jumping from their engine to avoid a collision, just west of the city.

Shea's ankle was sprained and he is now confined to his home. Larrimore had his face badly cut.

STILL UNCERTAIN

Is the Political Situation in Pennsylvania.

Senator Quay is Positive His Faction is in the Lead, and His Enemies Are Equally Confident of Success.

HARRISBURG, Pa., Aug. 27.—The political situation here today appears to be just as uncertain as ever. Neither faction will give out positive figures, leaders contenting themselves with the statement that their faction is on top At the anti-Quay headquarters David Martin and C. L. Magee possess the appearance of serene confidence which has characterized their every action during the past twenty-four hours. They say the fight is over and that Quay is badly whipped. At the Quay headquarters the information is just the opposite. Ex-Chairman Cooper, Congressman Robinson and Senator Quay himself appear just as confident as ever that they have enough delegates to control the convention. The present prospect is that there will be two sets of tickets and an inevitable clash of authority. Whether the clash will be carried to the extent of two conventions will probably be decided by the events of the day. The leaders of both factions held conferences this morning. Manager Markley, of the Harrisburg opera house, announces this afternoon that Chairman Gilkeson has bought off the dramatic company which was to hold forth on the stage tonight and the keys of the building are now in his possession and will be delivered to no one but Mr. Gilkeson. This appears to insure the anti-Quay people in their possession of the convention hall. The state committee held an adjourned meeting this forenoon, Chairman Gilkeson defending himself on the ground that the meeting had not been properly called. Temporary Chairman Cooper reported that there were seventy-five of the 121 members present, personally or by proxy. The report of the committee on credentials was favorable to the Quay contestants from Wyoming county and the First and Fifth wards of Philadelphia. No action was taken regarding the Northumberland county contest. The committee took a recess until 11 o'clock tonight.

YACHT RUN DOWN.

Robert W. Inman's Pleasure Craft Comes to Grief

And the Owner is Missing and is Thought to Have Lost His Life in the Water.

NEW YORK, Aug. 27.—Up to 10:30 o'clock this morning nothing had been heard from Robert W. Inman, jr., who was on board his yacht Adelaide last night when it was struck by the Iron Steamboat company's steamer Perseus off Norton's Point. It is quite possible, however, that he is safe and that, not realizing the anxiety which his absence occasions, he has neglected to send any message to his office or to his bachelor apartments. All the others who were on board the yacht Adelaide with Mr. Inman are accounted for.

GRAPHIC DESCRIPTION OF THE ACCIDENT.

Captain Jacobs, of the Adelaide, made a statement today regarding the collision. He said he was at the wheel when the Perseus struck the yacht. His boat was thrown broadside against the steamer and was rapidly nearing the port paddle wheel when he ran forward, caught the rail of the steamer, helped one woman aboard and the next instant found himself forced to board the steamer as the boats parted. He later returned to the yacht by the steamer's life boat and steered the Adelside, which was not seriously damaged, to the quarters of the Atlantic Yacht club South Brooklyn. When the Adelside reached the yacht club house she had aboard five persons, the captain, the steward and the boy, Lafayette Jacques, of the crew, and Mr. Evans and Miss Norton. Mrs. Evans and Doran, one of the crew, were taken on board the Perseus. Neither the captain nor the steward observed Mr. Inman's movements after the collision. B. S. Clarke, who is associated with Mr. Inman in business, said that he felt great anxiety for Mr. Inman's safety. He thought it almost certain that if the missing yachtsman were in a position to do so, he would have communicated with his friends at once. Mr. Inman was a strong swimmer and might have made either shore of the narrows, but in a condition too exhausted to send word. Then some hope is rested upon the report that a passing sloop picked up some one from the yacht.

INDIAN TROUBLES

Break Out Anew in Pend d' Orielle District.

The Reds Claim the Territory as Their Reservation and Drive the Settlers From the Land.

SPOKANE, Wash., Aug. 27.—Trouble has again broke out between Kalispel Indians and settlers along the east ridge of the Pend d'Orielle river, in Idaho, over the disputed possession of what the Indians claim is their reservation, but which is in reality government land. A large delegation of white settlers came to this city today and stated that they were driven off from their farms by Indians, who threatened them with death if they dared to return. The red skins forcibly took possession of the homes and property of the whites and told the latter that such was their instructions from Indian Agent Budd. The settlers are preparing to go back armed and in force and drive the Indians out of the neighborhood. The Indians are ugly and the situation is deemed to be serious.

WEALTH TO POVERTY.

Remarkable Career of a Man in His Second Childhood.

Came to America From Servia Two Years Ago With $200,000, and is Now a Pauper.

PORTLAND, Ore., Aug. 27.—A Servian, traveling under the name of John Gibovich, left for the east today, accompanied by a man who, he claims, is a cousin of the ex-king of Servia The man is seventy-eight years old and has been a waiter in a Spokane restaurant the past four months. He came to America two years ago with $200,000, so the story goes, which he squandered in New York and San Francisco. In the latter place he was known as an Italian count and, it is said, moved in high society. Gibovich says he had a commission to escort the man to his native country.

WILL BE EVICTED.

Settlers Receive Notice to Quit Their Lands.

The Order Issues From the War Department and It Deprives 1,500 Persons of Their Homes.

PORT TOWNSEND, Wash., Aug. 27.—Consternation has been caused in this and adjoining counties by the appearance of an army lieutenant and a squad of men with instructions to all settlers on government reserves to vacate the same before September 15 or be removed by the troops. This move is the outcome of a recent order of the war department and it is conservatively estimated that 1,500 settlers will lose their homes. In early days when the settlement of Washington was beginning the government took occasion to set aside much valuable land on which it was intended to establish the Indians. These reserverations on the part of the government exceeded the needs of the occasion and as it never made an attempt to take up the lands, many pioneers settled upon the tracts which, by intelligent cultivation, have been developed into the finest farming lands in the state. It is feared here that trouble will ensue should the government attempt to forcibly take from the settlers the homes which they have built by many years of toil. It was claimed by some that this action of the department is simply preliminary to the extensive and much needed fortification of Puget Sound.

GIVE UP THE FIGHT.

Harlem Races Declared Off and Stakes Withdrawn.

CHICAGO, Aug. 27.—All racing at Harlem has been declared off. The track officials, after a conference today, decided that the injunction issued against them last Saturday all further attempt at running the track impossible and all stakes were accordingly declared off. The injunction was obtained by the Civic Federation from Judge Gibbons and, while permitting racing, forbade gambling.

LOCAL LINES.

Mrs. William Zutermeister has returned from Richmond, where she was visiting friends a few days.

Miss Lotta Cramer, of West DeWald street, has left for Toledo to be the guest of relatives for a week.

Jerry Rayel, who was the guest of Miss Jennie Haverly over Sunday returned to his home at Crestline, Ohio, at noon today.

B. Ellert and son, Ben, are visiting at Detroit and Windsor, Canada. Mr. Ellert writes that it reminds him of Paris—everything is "parlez vous Francais."

Frank Aurentz has returned from a trip to Niagara Falls, Buffalo, Detroit and Toledo. Frank wrote a number of interesting letters home while en route.

Deputy Sheriff Al. Melching this afternoon left for Edgerton, to arrest one Elmer Little, charged with stealing twenty bales of hay from a Wabash railway car.

The funeral of the late Mrs. Catharine Brooks will occur from the residence of her son, H. C. Brooks, 269 West DeWald street, tomorrow afternoon, at 2:30. Rev. J. S. Ainslie will officiate.

Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Grimme today are celebrating the golden anniversary of their marriage. A large number of friends and relatives from a distance are here participating in the festivities.

On the evening of September 2 the New Haven Stars will give a Labor Day ball at Stock's opera house, New Haven. The reception committee is Bert M. Gorrell, Lou Krock and Herman Sievers. The floor managers are Charles A. Boice and S. A. Blaising.

Alvin Lackey, aged twenty-four years, a farm hand employed on the farm of Preston Chapman, in Pleasant township, died this morning from measles. The body will be brought to the home of his father, Ephriam Lackey, 28 Savilla avenue, from which place the funeral will be held.

Last evening a number of friends gathered at the home of Miss Birdie Zellers to congratulate her on the anniversary of her birth. At the hour of ten a quartet surrounded her. The singing was enjoyed and a pleasant time was had by all. She was also remembered by her friends with many gifts.

CREMATION OF THE DEAD

The Views of Dr. C. B. Stemen and Rev. J. S. Ainslie

On This Interesting Question--Both of Them Speak in Strong Terms Against It.

Dr. C. B. Stemen, the dean of the Fort Wayne Medical college and one of the prominent physicians of this city, contributes for THE SENTINEL the following interesting article on the cremation of the dead, and as it is a subject which is now coming up for discussion, we give it publication, feeling confident it will interest a large number of our readers. In this connection THE SENTINEL also gives a synopsis of the sermon delivered on Sunday evening by Rev. James S. Ainslie, the pastor of the Congregational church of this city, on the same subject. Both of the gentlemen take strong grounds against the incineration of the dead. The article of Dr. Stemen is as follows:

At the time that the great American surgeon, Prof. S. D. Gross, requested that his body should be cremated and which was accordingly done, there were a number of societies organized for the purpose of establishing crematories in different parts of this country, but up to the present time they have not been liberally patronized. Cremation has been practiced from the earliest times and among many nations. It was practiced by some of the western people and is now in India and some other countries of Asia and by a few tribes of North American Indians as well as by a very small per cent in this country. As stated before, the greatest revival of this subject in this country was after the death of the distinguished surgeon, Prof. S. D. Gross. He was favorably and extensively known both in this country and, in fact, among many nations as the greatest of American surgeons, and as he selected this mode of disposing of his body, many of his admirers made similar requests; but up to the present but few have followed his example. The crematories then established have had but few bodies to cremate.

Recently this subject has again been revived and an effort made to have other crematories established.

In this city the Allen county medical society passed resolutions recommending cremation as the best method of disposing of our dead. We were not present at this meeting or their would have been one vote cast against the resolution.

The grounds on which its adoption is urged are those of economy, sanitation and the horror of the slow process of decomposition in the earth. There are in our opinion some serious objections to be urged against cremation. We would not object on the grounds of the Christian religion. Yet we learn from history that it was given up in Europe as Christianity spread and disappeared in Rome during the fourth century. There is no record that it has ever been customarily employed by any Christian nation. The burial of the dead is in accordance with the teachings of the Bible. And we do not believe that any of the advocates of cremation would want to live in any community where the Bible was not read or believed and the best educated men living any where are the believers in the word of God and the more closely any people live in obedience to its teachings the happier and more prosperous they are.

As stated before we do not oppose cremation on this ground, for the God we worship can hold all the atoms of matter in the grasp of his omnipotence and it matters not whether the body be rapidly decomposed by fire or the slower process of decomposition in the earth. The great "I Am" will watch that dust or ashes and whatever portion or particle (if any) is necessary to constitute identity will be brought forth.

But there are other grounds on which we oppose cremation. The one most important objection is that it would destroy the evidence of foul play and many murders would be committed by the giving of deadly poisons, that now probably end only in suits for divorce etc. This objection is a serious one, which in our opinion will prevent it from ever becoming generally adopted.

We know of quite a number of murders committed in this and other states where no suspicion was aroused at the time of death and in some cases not for some time after the body had been buried, when one circumstance after another aroused the suspicion of friends and investigations resulted in finding that a murder had been committed by the administration of a deadly poison. The protection of human life demands that the bodies be buried and not incinerated, as this would destroy all evidence of foul play.

In regard to economy there is no argument that we have yet seen that makes it any more economical than that of burial.

As to cremation being better in a sanitary point of view, we have never seen any scientific arguments that prove this to be true. The earth is the best disinfectant that we have any knowledge of and, while heat such as is necessary to incinerate the body certainly will destroy all germs, so with the earth, we believe that it as effectually destroys all the diseased germs

Some may ask about typhoid fever germs—they live in water. Yes, but not in the earth. We challenge any one to show us a single case of infection that can be traced to our cemeteries. It cannot be done. Consequently this argument in favor of cremation fails. But the one great objection against cremation is the fact of covering up crime by destroying all evidence that could convict the guilty parties. C. B. STEMEN.

THE SERMON OF REV. AINSLIE.

THE SENTINEL would be glad to give the sermon in full of Rev. Ainslie, for it was an able effort, and preached to a large audience, but the crowded condition of our columns necessitates the giving only of a synopsis of the discourse, which is as follows:

"By faith Joseph, when he died, made mention of the departing of the children of Israel, and gave commandment concerning his bones."

This is a remarkable record, said the speaker, of a dying statesman's anxiety concerning his bones. Egypt was the world's capital and the very center of the world's civilization. Joseph was the real ruler of the realm, though he was second to the king.

But in his dying hour he cares for none of these things. His last message was: "Swear to me that you will carry my bones back to Palestine, to the sepulcher of my fathers, where Abraham, Isaac and Jacob rest. Let me slumber with them."

Why should Joseph give this special message concerning his burial? Why should we, as Christian people, have any thought about the final disposition of our bodies, after death?

In the first place, we should regard the body as sacred, because we are fearfully and wonderfully made. Scholars tell us that matter has fulfilled its mission now that the body stands erect, throbbing with a living brain, and beating in a living heart. Man's body is the gem and crown of God's physical creation. Therefore, it should be treated with care in life, and with honor in death.

Secondly, The body is sacred, because it is the instrument of the soul The body is the temple in which I live, the instrument through which I do all my work in this world. The soul is a city, and the five senses are gateways through which pass all earth's sights and sounds. Through the ear we have heard the messages of love, and a thousand pleasant notes. How do hand and vision protect us in danger! What joy we have had in voice! It carries warning and alarm. Thus the body serves the soul, and becomes sacred by service.

3. Then the body is sacred by reason of its associations. It is a law of our being that objects and places connected with life's deep joys and sorrows become themselves sacred through these associations. The bird lines its nest with down from its own bosom. Thus, the heart, going forward in life, leaves behind some treasure, and perfumes its path. Memory hangs on the tree the whispered confession made beneath its branches. No palace so memorable as the little house where you were reared. Noteworthy forever the cottage where Shakespeare dwelt. But no building ever showed such handiwork as the temple built by divine skill. God hath made the soul's house fair to look upon. Death may close the doors, darken its windows, and pull down its pillars; still, its very ruins are precious, to be guarded with jealous care.

But the objector says: "Should a man care for the old coat or worn-out shoe? And what more is the body after death?"

But if it is your mother's? Do you remember her love for you, her care, her nursing you in sickness, her prayers, and tears in your behalf? And when she dies is that body, which has been identified with these ministries, to be treated as nothing, and cast into the furnace?

4. Still, further, this feeling of respect for the body also has a powerful reflex influence on our treatment of the poor. If a poor man, dying, is treated according to his value in society, there is suggested that most dismal of Hood's poems:

"Rattle his bones
Over the stones:
It's only a pauper
Whom nobody owns."

But if every poorest man is a child of God, and destined to immortality, then his body cannot be treated with indignity without a shock to our humane feelings.

5. I mention one more reason why we should hold our bodies in honor in life, and for an honorable burial in death; namely, the sense of identity is largely dependent upon it. The body is a registering machine. Every thought of the brain, every aspiration of the soul is registered on our faces. The base and vulgar man carries the sign of his depravity in his countenance. The saint is good looking. And while the self-same body is not raised out of the grave, yet the spiritual body is like unto it.

All these considerations will oppose a lasting resistance to the paganism of burning the dead, now sought to be introduced. It is against nature and revolting to all the finer sensibilities of the heart. It is the liberty of all who wish for incineration to have it. It is urged for sanitary reasons and as a matter of convenience. But it will never become popular, for all the associations of our English-speaking and of our German-speaking populations are violated by the attempt to supercede our whole literature, by reducing our friends at once to ashes, and putting them in urns, like labeled sweetmeats on our shelves!

Could anyone sing at the mouth of the furnace, that grandest lyric of death in the English Language? 'Unveil thy bosom, faithful tomb," etc.

So let us live that this body shall itself be a cluster of associations and sanctities, and dying, as to the outward and physical life, we shall leave a memory, a faith, clustering affection, spiritual elements and a glorious reappearing when Christ shall come to call us home.

TWELFTH ANNIVERSARY.

The Reformed Orphan's Home Will Celebrate It

At the Beautiful Grounds of the Institution on Sept. 4--The Program for the Occasion.

The Reformed Orphans' home will celebrate its twelfth anniversary on September 4 at the beautiful grounds of the institution, two miles east of the city. Dinner and supper will be served in the basement of the building to all who may desire it. The ladies of the different Reformed churches of the city have united, and together with the executive committee of the board of trustees, are completing the arrangements for a successful celebration. The friends of the orphanage are all cordially invited to attend. Persons going to the anniversary will take the Spy Run electric cars and go out past the School for Feeble Minded Children to the end of the line, where wagons will be waiting to convey passengers to the home.

In the afternoon the usual anniversary services will be held in the grove. The English address will be delivered by Rev. A. K. Zartman, of Fort Wayne; and the German address by Rev. Ferdinand G. Zesch, Ph. D., of Cincinnati, with introductory remarks by the president of the board, Rev. J. Bachman, D. D., also of Cincinnati. The children of the home will furnish some singing, and a band has been engaged to assist in the entertainment. The board of trustees will hold a meeting at the home at 8 o'clock this evening.

POLICE COURT.

Case Which Came Before Mayor Oakley This Morning.

But two prisoners lined up before his honor in police court this morning They were Joe Miller and Frank Jeffrie, colored lads, who yesterday were begging in the west end of the city. During the noon hour they called at the home of Officer Flickinger, on West Main street, and that gentleman very promptly gathered them in out of the wet. In lieu of a fine of $14 50 they decided to become guests of Sheriff Clausmeier.

Last evening Officer Hines arrested John Stoehr, a Calhoun street saloonkeeper, for drunkenness. This morning his bail of $10.50 was forfeited.

Officers Dixon and Knock gathered in Frank Barry and Harry Adams for drunkenness last evening. The men are from St. Louis. Barry is a restaurant dish washer and Adams, who has a wooden leg, is accompanying him in his travels. The men were creating a disturbance near the corner of Harrison and Main streets when arrested. Their cases will come up before the mayor this afternoon, at which time the cases against a number of saloonkeepers for violation of the Nicholson law will be heard.

Superintendent of Police Liggett, always on the alert for evil-doers, has for some time thought that gambling has been going on in a certain saloon, and today after a little detective work proved the matter to his entire satisfaction. Mr. Liggett states that if the business is not discontinued at once the promoters of the scheme will get it where the bottle got the cork.

WINONA ASSEMBLY.

The Evangelistic Meetings Held by J. Wilbur Chapman.

The Winona Assembly and Summer School at Eagle Lake, entered upon the closing week yesterday. From now on the evangelistic meetings, commenced with such a flow of enthusiasm on Sunday in the Auditorium under the auspices of the noted evangelist, J. Wilbur Chapman, will "hold the boards." At 11 o'clock on Sunday Mr. Chapman preached a powerful sermon to a large audience. In the afternoon at 3 o'clock Mr. Sunday conducted the service and his exceedingly able and practical discourse appealed to the hearts and minds of all present. Sunday evening the Winona Assembly united with the churches of Warsaw in a union meeting at the opera house, addressed by Mr. Chapman. The crowd was so great that an overflow meeting was necessary and was addressed by Mr. Sunday at the M E. church. Each day three special services will be held in the Assembly Auditorium, conducted by Mr. Chapman, viz: at 11 a. m., 3:30 and 7:30 p. m. The celebrated Gospel singers, Professor and Mrs. Lowe, will add to the enjoyment of each occasion by their sweet singing, which has so delighted multitudes throughout the length and breadth of the land.

OUR CENTENNIAL.

The Directors Hold an Important Business Meeting.

At the meeting of the board of directors of the centennial celebration last evening at the office of Randall & Doughman, it was decided to change the date of the celebration from the 8th to the 15th of October, to continue four days. Committees were appointed to take charge of the special features of the centennial. The report of the soliciting committees are more than satisfactory and demonstrates the great interest which is being taken in the celebration by the citizens. The directors are fitting up room No. 7 in the Arcade as headquarters and will occupy it in a day or two.

Miss Mary Rogers, of East Jefferson street, is on the sick list.

SHOT IN THE BACK.

Ernest Spitler Seriously Wounded While Hunting.

He is Now at the St. Joseph Hospital, and His Recovery is Doubtful--Other Casualties.

As a result of the careless handling of a gun, Ernest Spitler, a young painter, aged about eighteen years, is lying at the point of death at the St. Joseph hospital.

This morning, about 9 o'clock, Spitler accompanied by two other lads, Louis Figel and Edward Jones, aged thirteen and seventeen years respectively, went out a short distance beyond Centlivre's to shoot birds. There were two guns, one a shotgun, the other a twenty-two calibre target rifle, in the party, both the property of young Jones.

The target rifle was in the hands of Figel, the youngest boy in the party, and in attempting to lower the hammer the gun was discharged, the ball entering Spitler's back and penetrating the liver. At the time Spitler was not more than two or three feet from the muzzle of the weapon. After the shooting Spitler walked some distance until meeting a carriage, the driver of which was induced to convey the wounded lad to his home, No. 66 Wells street, from which place the patrol wagon was summoned to take the boy to the hospital, where Dr. W. H Myers is attending him.

While at work in the new Lau block yesterday afternoon, Frank Hensil, a stonemason, was struck on the head by a falling beam and knocked senseless. The wounded man was taken to his home, on Miner street, where Dr. Van Buskirk sewed up the wound.

Last evening the little daughter of Peter Wysong, the painter, fell while playing and fractured the bones of the right arm below the elboy. Dr. Porter was called and reduced the fracture.

The twelve-year-old daughter of August Steepe, of Smith street, met with a painful accident Sunday evening. While playing with a number of small friends, she was thrown to the ground and sustained a fracture of the right hip. Dr. Duemling was summoned and rendered the necessary treatment.

THREE MORE DIVORCES!

Jacobs vs. Jacobs, Rogers vs. Rogers.

Cruelty and Drunkenness is the Cause in One Case, and Abandonment in the Other.

David Jacobs has commenced proceedings in the circuit court, through his attorney, J. R. Bittinger, asking that he may be given a divorce from his wife, Anna Jacobs.

In his petition he charges that the defendant has been guilty of cruel and inhuman conduct and was also guilty of drunkenness. He says that she threatened at different times to take his life and that she was in the habit of keeping whisky in the house for her own use, and at one time, he alleges in his petition, she was dead drunk.

The parties were married on the 14th of January, 1892.

The superior court also records a divorce case, in which Dora Rogers asks for a separation from her husband Leslie Rogers. Her attorneys are John Shaffer and Breen & Morris.

The petition states that the parties were married in November, 1885, and lived together until December, 1889, when the defendant abandoned the plaintiff without cause. The plaintiff asks for a divorce, the restoration of her maiden name, Dora Shaffer, and the custody of the two children born to them.

Jennie M. Beach has brought suit against John H. Beach for divorce. The petition has been taken from the files.

Officer Schlaudroff has filed an affidavit in Justice France's court against John DeVaux, a farmer living on the Maysville road, nine miles from the city, for cruelty.

Justice France has continued the preliminary examination of Hobbs, who is charged with rape, until Thursday.

NEVER TOO LATE TO MEND —the bad habits and early vices of young men and their disastrous consequences. Young men and old men, those who suffer from nervous debility and exhaustion, the wasting away of the vital strength and power from hidden drains or intemperate habits can readily find relief for body and mind by writing the World's Dispensary Medical Association, of Buffalo, N. Y. They employ a full staff of physicians and Specialists who treat at a distance by correspondence or at the Invalids' Hotel and Surgical Institute of Buffalo, all this class of diseases. Those who suffer from low spirits, irritable temper, a "broken-down" nervous system, and such distressing symptoms as backache, dizziness, shooting pains in head or chest and indigestion, sexual excesses or abuses, all the result of exhausting diseases or drains upon the system,—will find a permanent cure after taking the special prescriptions sent them from the Invalids' Hotel and Surgical Institute. This association of medical men have prepared a book written in plain but chaste language, treating of the nature, symptoms and curability, by home treatment, of such diseases. The World's Dispensary Medical Association, Proprietors of the Invalids' Hotel and Surgical Institute, Buffalo, N. Y., will, on receipt of this notice, with 10 cents (in stamps for postage) mail, sealed in plain envelope, a copy of this useful book. It should be read by every young man, parent and guardian in the land.

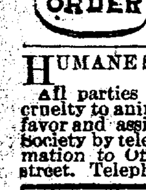

The Key to the Situation —if you suffer from Sick or Bilious Headache, Constipation, Indigestion, Bilious Attacks, or any derangement of the stomach, liver and bowels—is Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets. Mildly and gently, but thoroughly and effectively, they cleanse, renovate and regulate the entire system. One little "Pellet" for a gentle laxative—three for a cathartic. They're purely vegetable and perfectly harmless; these tiny, sugar-coated granules of Dr. Pierce.

The Evening Sentinel.

BY E. A. K HACKETT.

TUESDAY, AUG. 27, 1895

THE postal receipts for July, 1895, were 17 per cent. larger than for July, 1894. Another convincing proof that prosperity has returned with her smiles and manifold blessings.

THE article on "The Cremation of the Dead," written by Dr. C. B. Stemen and published in today's SENTINEL will be found interesting. He takes strong grounds against such a disposition of the body after death.

FORT WAYNE will have at the coming races of the Driving Park association one of the fastest fast-steppers of the country—Robert J. It may be that then the people attending will see the two minute record made.

THE people of the surrounding towns and also those living in the country are taking a great interest in the centennial celebration of the city's anniversary and the event will undoubtedly be the means of bringing to Fort Wayne thousands of visitors.

THE democratic city convention of Indianapolis will be held Thursday. Governor Matthews will preside. There are five candidates for mayor, but it is the expectation that Thomas Taggart will be nominated on the first ballot and that Evans Wollon will be named for police judge.

THE SENTINEL is glad to see the movement for the building of electric roads from Fort Wayne to the different towns in this vicinity. It means, if these roads are constructed and put in operation, that the trade of a wide scope of country will be brought to this city and the benefitting of every merchant and manufacturer in our midst.

THE first evidence of new civilization in Corea comes to this country in the shape of an order for postage stamps, and they are now being manufactured in large quantities in Washington. They are designed for the carrying of domestic mail only, and will open up many new routes throughout the little kingdom, improving and enlarging the service in every department.

THE new woman is reaching upward. Miss Anna S. Peck, of Providence, R. I., is a graduate of Michigan university, an authority on archaeology, has been a professor of Latin at Smith college, and is a handsome woman of twenty-eight. With all this she is a mountain-climber, and she is the third woman to scale the dangerous peak of the Matterhorn, which feat she accomplished this summer.

THE meeting of the city council this evening, which is the first session since their summer adjournment, will be one of considerable interest and importance as estimates will be submitted by the administration for the revenues which will be necessary to carry on the city government for the next twelve months. A message from the mayor giving his views on this subject will be read. THE SENTINEL in its issue tomorrow, will give an account of the proceedings of the council together with the views of the mayor as embodied in his message.

IN A speech delivered before a populist gathering, at Chicago, Coxey declared that he would be the next Governor of Ohio, and probably the populist candidate for the presidency next year. Coxey is now as near to either of these offices as he will ever get.

IN ITS issue yesterday THE SENTINEL recorded two lynchings—one at Springfield, Ky., and the other at Yerka, Cal. Mob law cannot be too severely condemned. It is never justifiable, because an excited body of men, acting on the impulse of the moment and their judgments impaired by passion, are too liable to be mistaken. Many an innocent man has suffered death as a result of lynch law.

THE SENTINEL today prints a synopsis of the sermon delivered last Sunday evening by Rev. J. S. Ainslie, of this city, on the question of cremation of the dead. It will be found interesting and we invite the attention of our readers to it. Rev. Ainslie is one of our ablest city pastors and his arguments against this manner of disposing of the dead are the sentiment of the great mass of the Christian ministry.

ANNOUNCEMENT is made that Lafayette is to have a new daily paper, to begin its existence on Labor day. It is to be called the Lafayette Tribune. It will be independent in politics, a morning issue, and edited by Thomas E. Scantlin, formerly of the Courier. Lafayette already has three daily papers—the Courier and Call, evening, and the Journal, morning. The evening papers are both republican in politics, while the Journal is democratic.

THE pulse of the country is told by the records of the ship canal at the Sault Ste. Marie, through which passes the immense commerce of Lake Superior. The business of the canal for July, 1895, was 187,000 tons greater than for July, 1894. The total for July this year was 2,477,000 tons, which is much greater than was ever known before, notwithstanding the fact that another canal has been built on the Canadian side which gets its share of the traffic.

THE estimated sales of commercial fertilizers in Indiana during the year 1894 amounted to 35 000 tons, a decrease of 3,000 tons from the estimated sales 1893. This 35,000 tons of fertilizer consisted of 10,900 tons of bone, raw and steamed; 15,600 tons of "complete" fertilizer, that is, fertilizer containing nitrogen, phosphoric acid and potash; 4,200 tons of ammoniated phosphates, 1,000 tons of phosphate and potash, and 3,300 tons of acid phosphate. The amount of plant food contained in the above includes 5,589 tons of phosphoric acid, of which 697 tons were in the insoluble form in acidulated goods; 777 tons of nitrogen and 407 tons of actual potash.

THE THIRTIETH INDIANA.

Their Reunion Held in This City Next Thursday.

The twelfth annual reunion of the Thirtieth Indiana Veteran union will be held in this city next Thursday. The officers of the union are, Capt. J. B. White, of Fort Wayne, president; N. N. Boydston, vice president; J. N. Oblwine, Cromwell, Ind., secretary and treasurer. As appropriate to this annual meeting of the Thirtieth Indiana, Dr. J. W. Younge sends THE SENTINEL the following lines written by himself, which he has dedicated to Capt. J. B. White, for publication, which, he says, are a parody on those written by Secretary Ohlwine, of the regiment, and published in the Gazette of last Sunday:

Come, all you boys of '61,
Who were fond of fighting and of fun,
Who made the Johnnie Rebels run,
From Fort Wayne, Indiana.

Come, all you boys of '62,
Who love the red, the white and blue,
We'll show you now what we can do
At Fort Wayne, Indiana.

Come, all you boys of '63,
And Captain White will surely see
You are filled full of beans and glee
At Fort Wayne, Indiana.

Come, all you boys of '64,
Who loved to hear the cannons roar,
And made the rebels feel mighty sore,
From Fort Wayne, Indiana.

Come, all you boys of '65,
I mean all of you that are alive,
With your sweethearts and your wives,
For Fort Wayne, Indiana.

Come, all you boys from east and west,
We'll try and do our level best
To give you food you can digest
At Fort Wayne, Indiana.

On Aug. 29, 1895.

IMPROVEMENTS.

The Board of Public Works Decide on Several Last Evening.

The board of public works met yesterday in regular session, Mr. Hattersley being absent. The assessment roll for the construction of a sidewalk on the south side of Taber street, from Calhoun to Clinton, was approved. The engineer was instructed to prepare plans for the grading of the alley between Calhoun and Harrison streets, from Allen street to Creighton avenue. The improvement is in accordance with a petition which was received from a number of property owners of that part of town.

A communication was received from Captain Borgman, of the police force, regarding a number of electric lights in certain portions of the city and South Wayne, which failed to throw their light on several nights.

The board instructed the clerk to notify the natural gas company to repair Wells street at a point where it had been left in a bad condition after being torn up for the purpose of making an extension of pipes. The clerk was also instructed to notify the gas company to remove obstructions on West Wayne street, where work has been in progress.

The board granted the application for a sewer builder's license of Philip Wyss, and after allowing a few bills adjourned.

Mr. Willis, of the Dixon Crematory company, was present, and reported that the work of construction on the new building was progressing satisfactorily.

ALL THOMPSON'S FAULT

He Could Have Prevented the Colorado Bull Fights

Had He Remained at His Post of Duty at the Critical Moment—So Says the Governor.

DENVER, Col., Aug. 27.—Hugh R. Steele, mayor of Cripple Creek, says the bull fights could have been prevented had Secretary Thompson, of the Humane society, been on the ground attending to his duty. "In fact," said he, "there was a strong sentiment against the show and had a determined effort been made, plenty of people could have been found who would have backed up an officer of the Humane society."

Governor McIntyre has written to the officers of the national society, advising the removal of its local agent, G. H. Thompson, secretary of the Colorado Humane society, on the ground of incompetency. The governor says that Thompson could have prevented the bull fight at Gillette if he had remained at the ring side and ordered the arrest of the fighters every time they entered the arena. He went to Gillette the day before the fighting was to begin and hurried back to Denver to ask the governor to call out the militia, which under the circumstances he could not do.

BIG FIELDS

At Both Fleetwood Park and Galesburg Track.

NEW YORK, Aug. 27.—A crowd estimated all the way from 3,000 to 4,000 gathered at the Fleetwood track yesterday afternoon for the opening day of the grand circuit trotting meeting. A slight accident occurred in the third heat of the first race, and there were a couple of rattling finishes between Benton Wilkes and Catherine Leyburn in the third race.

By way of giving a taste of what is to come Joe Patchen, John R Gentry and Robert J., the three pacing cracks that are to come together Thursday, were brought out and walked up and down the track, to the great delight of the crowd. There were big fields entered in all the three races on the card today, but for the most part things went off rather listlessly. There was comparatively little betting, and what there was was kept strictly within the regulations.

Summaries:

2:30 trot; purse, $3 000—Prince Purdy, 3, 3, 1, 1, 1; Anna Mace, 6, 5, 2, 2, 6 Nomad, Roetta Soap, King Albert, Burlingame, Bayreuth, Nickey, Operetta, Van Zant, Charity, El Rami also started. Time—2:14¼ 2:15¼ 2:15¾ 2:15½. 2:15¼.

2:10 pace; purse, $2 000—Moonstone, first; Vitello, second; Henry F., third. Fred K., Paul, B. B., Sterling, Alcyo, Weed Wilkes, Kitty B., Wirligig also started. Time—2:09½. 2:09, 2:10½.

2:17 class trot; purse, $2,000; unfinished—Benton Wilkes, 7, 1, 1; Catherine Leyburn, 1, 2, 2; Scranton Belle 2, 4, 5; Minnie Wilkes, Ora, Double Cross, Jacksonian, Kitty R., Orangelander, Erusie, Maumefam, El Robinson, Del Mar also started. Time—2:14, 2:13, 2:14

GALESBURG, Ill, Aug. 27.—On account of the hard rain yesterday the first day's races over the Williams track were postponed until this morning, when the horses will be called at 8:30 o'clock, and ten races will be concluded during the day, the largest number ever attempted by any association. The purses will amount to $14,000. The city is fast filling up with horsemen, so that the races tomorrow are certain to be largely attended.

SANDBAGGED AND ROBBED.

Wealthy Man in Crawfordsville, Ind., Comes to Grief.

CRAWFORDSVILLE, Ind., Aug. 27.—There was a case of sandbagging on a Crawfordsville side street yesterday, the victim being James Devan, aged nearly eighty years. For over twenty years Devan has clad himself in an old snuff colored suit, and it was generally known that he kept large sums of gold and greenbacks sewed up in and concealed about his tatters. He was waylaid from the rear, clubbed insensible and dragged into an alley, where his assailants secured one wad of $727 in greenbacks, but overlooked other large amounts in their haste. Bloodhounds were brought into service, but on account of inexperience and a dry scent they were only able to trace the robbers to the spot where the booty was divided.

PRISONERS' PLOT TO ESCAPE.

Sheriff Harvey Discovers the Scheme and Thwarts Its Consummation.

KNOX, Ind., Aug. 27.—By the fortunate discovery of their plans yesterday four prisoners confined in the county jail were prevented from escaping. The men are Harry Hogan, awaiting trial for stealing a team of horses at North Judson a month ago; Andrew Hartlode, charged with rape, and John Murray and William Bensman, charged with minor offenses. The latter three are from Winamac, transferred because of the bad sanitary condition of the jail there.

For several days Sheriff Harvey has been satisfied they were planning an escape and has watched them closely. Yesterday he made a search of the cells and corridors, discovering that the prisoners had a blade taken from a pocketknife, a short iron bar partly shaped into a key, a bolt four inches long and the steel shank taken from one of their shoes. Hogan weakened under examination and, on being promised protection from the other prisoners, confessed that they had a key almost completed on one end of the iron bar, but broke it. They meant to unlock the corridor door when given the liberty of the corridor through the day, which was the only thing between them and freedom. They will be confined in their cells and carefully watched until court sits in October.

Cheap Telephone Service.

CLEVELAND, Ohio, Aug. 27.—Colonel William P. Fogg, of New York, is in the city as the representative of a wealthy New York syndicate organizing a new telephone company to compete with the Bell company. The new organization will be known as the Subscribers' Automatic Telephone company of Cleveland, and will be capitalized at $1,000,000, to be divided into shares of $50. Many local capitalists will also be interested in the company. The New York capitalists are those interested in the Mutual Automatic company, recently organized. It is proposed to secure 10,000 subscribers for the new exchange, which, it is promised, will be in operation within six months. The rates, as compared with those now charged by the Bell company, will be very low.

FOUR MEN KILLED.

Feud of Long Standing Comes to a Climax.

The Boyds and the Thomasses Arm Themselves With Rifles and Wade In.

BRISTOL, Tenn., Aug. 27.—A bloody war between two factions resulting from a long standing feud has been fought in the Cumberland mountains, seventy-five miles north of here on the Virginia and Kentucky lines. A number of Boyd relatives and Thomas relatives, with Winchesters, met at an illicit distillery where the battle began. Four men, John Boyd, Will Cox, Jack Thomas and Floyd Thomas are dead and several are wounded.

MATT. W. RANSOM.

New Commission Issued to the Minister to Mexico.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 27.—The white house mail this morning bore the commission of Matt. W. Ransom to be United States minister to Mexico. The commission was dated August 24th. This removes a legal complication by which Minister Ransom, after several months' service at his post at the City of Mexico, was declared ineligible to fill the office to which he had been appointed prior to the expiration of his term as United States senator. It was held by the treasury accounting officers that he fell within the constitutional inhibition against the appointment of congressmen to offices created, or whose emoluments had been increased during their service in congress. It has been generally understood that Mr. Ransom would be promptly reappointed and the slight delay which has occurred presumably has been for the purpose of definitely ascertaining that there were no more legal or other obstacles in the way of renaming Mr. Ransom to the Mexican mission. The minister was in Washington a few days ago, but is now in North Carolina recuperating from an attack of illness due, in part, to the climate of the City of Mexico.

SUSPECTED OF TRAIN ROBBERY.

Fred Geiser and His Companions Being Trailed by Officers.

GRAND RAPIDS, Mich., Aug. 27.—Fred Geiser, living near Fennville, is believed to be at the bottom of the recent train robbery, and the officers are hot on his trail. He arrived in Fennville a few months ago and lived with Amasa Logan, one mile east of the scene of the robbery.

Last Tuesday a farmer named Mann ferried three men across the Kalamazoo river, and they were met by Geiser, who, however, pretended that he did not know them. The four men were seen going together to Logan's house. Logan's boy returned home at 11 o'clock the night of the robbery and, though Geiser went to bed early, he was found up and dressed and nervous. The next day the three men were ferried across the river again and disappeared.

They answer the description of three of the train robbers. Geiser disappeared, but the officers are confident they have him covered and that they will capture him. In the Logan home was found a counterfeiting outfit and the federal authorities will probably take a hand in the case.

Shumakers & Co.'s large produce packing house at Bluffton was almost totally destroyed by fire yesterday afternoon. The building was a three story frame structure and the loss amounts to about $4,000, partially covered by insurance.

Mr. and Mrs. McGuffegan, of Muncie, Ind., are the guests of Mr. and Mrs. W. Sweet, of 92 Wagner street.

FOR RENT.

About the 5th of September "The Sentinel" will move into its new building on West Wayne street, and the building now occupied by "The Sentinel" will be for rent, and will be remodeled to suit the tenant. It is situated in an excellent business location, and any person desiring a store room on Calhoun street would do well to call at "The Sentinel" counting room. tf

A REMARKABLE CURE.

A CASE OF PILES OF EIGHTEEN YEARS STANDING.

Cured by the Pyramid Pile Cure.

There are plenty of pile cures which give relief and sometimes cure a mild case of piles, but there is only one which can be depended upon with certainty to cure obstinate long standing cases, and that is the Pyramid Pile Cure.

Endorsements and testimonials are received daily from men and women whose integrity and reliability are above question and in this connection a letter received from the Rev. Jas. H. Wesbrook, of Bowne, Mich., may be of interest to piles sufferers who have sought in vain for a cure. He says:

I have used the Pyramid Pile Cure and I know that it is all that is claimed for it. I had been troubled with piles more or less for about eighteen years and I had tried other remedies, but the piles grew worse until about ten months ago I used the Pyramid Pile Cure. It gave almost instant relief and I have been free from piles ever since. Rev. Jas. H. Wesbrook.

The remedy seems to act equally well in every form of piles, blind, bleeding, protruding or itching. It stops all pain almost immediately, allays irritation and removes constipation, and anyone who has suffered the annoyance and pain of a rectal trouble will appreciate the excellent results which invariably follow the first application of the Pyramid.

The Pyramid Pile Cure is prepared by the Pyramid Drug Co. of Albion, Mich., and for sale by druggists everywhere. Two sizes, 50 Cents and $1. Sold by all druggists.

THE LAW AND THE WHEEL.

Judge Gunster Says a Bicycle Has the Same Rights as Other Vehicles.

Judge Gunster of Lackawanna county has defined in an elaborate opinion the legal status of the bicycle in Pennsylvania. This opinion establishes the fact that the bicycle is a vehicle and has the same right on the highway as other vehicles. Its proper place is upon the street or driveway and not on the sidewalk. If a bicycle traveler has occasion to stop on the way he may leave his vehicle for a reasonable length of time on the side of the highway or street placed in a proper manner so as not unduly to interfere with the rights of others while he is calling at the residence or place of business of an abutting owner or occupant, and the person who negligently injures a vehicle so left is liable for the full amount of the damages caused by his negligence.

This is rational law, and when understood by the drivers of horses will relieve bicycle riders of much annoyance. The average driver considers the bicyclist as an intruder and a nuisance, having no rights to the road and no title to consideration. Many of them, so far from trying to avoid collision with a bicycle resting by the curb, will go out of their way to smash it. When they understand that fun of this character means the price of a new bicycle out of their own pockets, they will take a little pains to drive around and not over a resting bicycle. The bicycle men and the horsemen have exactly the same rights on the street, and each must exercise those rights so as not to interfere with the other's.—Philadelphia Press.

ODD SPOKES.

Many of the old ordinary wheels are now sold secondhand for $2 each.

A wheel guaranteed to produce 50 per cent less profanity than any other is advertised.

With knee breeches universally worn the bicycle rider would be saved the trouble of changing every day.

The Philadelphia police department is considering the idea of having the lieutenants and sergeants mounted on wheels.

The New York Tribune's cycling editor declares that $100 is an absurdly high price to charge for a bicycle of even the best make.

Two Englishmen recently crossed the channel from Dover to Calais in a tandem "cycle" boat, doing 30 miles in 7 hours and 15 minutes.

Sweaters with wide sailor collars, edged with stripes of red, white or blue, are the newest wrinkles in that line. The collars are worn outside the coat.

Do you want to know whether your saddle is at the proper angle? If so, ride a mile or more with only one hand on the bars; this will cause you to shift about in the saddle if it is not at the proper angle.

It used to be, when friends from town were invited to visit country houses, "We will send a carriage for you," but now it is, "You will find a bicycle with our card on it awaiting you at the railway station."

According to the 1895 standard of speed, a mile under 2 minutes 30 seconds is fair, 2 minutes 20 seconds good, under 2 minutes 10 seconds fast. It is not until 2 minutes or better is reached that it becomes remarkable.

There is a craze raging just about now for 26 inch wheels, some riders even insisting on 24 inch wheels. The argument advanced is that small wheels are stiffer, less liable to get out of true and will stand harder shocks.

Temperate Riding For Novices.

The strained eyes, drawn lips and excessively flushed faces so often met with among the bicycle riders are nature's signals of distress. They indicate excessive exertion on the part of those who are often unfit for anything more than the gentlest exercise. In the case particularly of a young woman these indications should be observed with the gravest concern, and unless she can be induced to ride gently until some strength is accumulated her friends should compel her not to ride at all. When used temperately, the cycle is a splendid means of recreation and exercise, but if abused it is a veritable Juggernaut, capable of inflicting the most grievous injuries.—Chicago Times-Herald.

A Very Novel Pneumatic Tire.

A cycling device has just been patented in England that substitutes for the continuous tubular tire a series of rubber balls set in cups at the outer ends of the spokes. The balls are so connected that they may be simultaneously inflated. Several advantages are claimed for the device, one of them being that no serious inconvenience will follow the accidental puncturing of the tire. It is also claimed that there is a great saving of ground cohesion, or friction, and that this will increase the ease and speed of propulsion.—Philadelphia Times.

A Cash Chorus.

Now that foreign climes are no longer the El Dorado for American professionals that they once were, we may expect shortly to see Banker and the rest of the American brigade returning home chorusing:

My country, 'tis of thee,
Sweet Land of Liberty,
Of thee I sing.

—Wheel.

He Owns Eight Wheels.

The cycling craze has taken complete possession of whole families, and one man who owns a number of saddle horses says that he is going to get rid of them if he has to give them away, as he now owns seven wheels for his children and a tandem for himself and his wife.—New York Sun.

Never Too Old to Ride or Race.

Amos Holmes of Unadilla, N. Y., 94 years old, has issued a challenge to any man of his age in the state to race for any number of miles on a bicycle.

CYCLISTS KNOWN TO FAME.

The king of Spain slightly injured his foot while riding a bicycle recently.

Mavroyeni Bey, the Turkish minister at Washington, is very fond of cycling and now and then rides in Turkish costume.

Emperor William, having mastered everything else in literature, science and art, has begun endeavoring to ride a bicycle.

Mrs. Lounsberry, who is the daughter of J. B. Haggin of Anaconda fame, rides as charmingly as she does everything else.

Calvin S. Brice, Jr., is said to be a very expert cyclist. His suit consists of a pair of Scotch plaid stockings, tan knickerbockers and a frock coat of tan, with blue tie and brown soft hat.

"I forget when I cycle that I am along in years—no, I don't mean that," corrected Mrs. Secretary Carlisle a few days ago. "But—well, to put it more diplomatically—that I have a husband whose hair is white as a grandfather's."

Miss Ellen Terry, the famous actress, is an enthusiastic cyclist. "On every opportunity I get," she says, "I ride miles and miles and find it helpful to me in thinking out and studying the many arduous parts I have to play." No one has yet been able to induce Miss Terry to adopt the rational dress.

Lady Norreys does not approve of the rational costume for wheeling. She says: "I think it perfectly horrible, and I think there is a strong feeling against it. Lady Dudley, Lady Wolverton, Lady Lurgan, all cycle, but I am sure not one of them would appear on her machine without a skirt over her knickerbockers."

Ex-Governor W. E. Russell of Massachusetts disappointed thousands of cyclists in his own state and elsewhere when he gave to the Boston press his letter of refusal to accept the L. A. W. presidential nomination. Mr. Russell is an enthusiastic cyclist, but the only presidency he has any use for is of another kind.

FAIR DEVOTEES OF CYCLING.

Fate has decreed that the bicycle girl in bloomers shall become a spinster, observes the Salt Lake Tribune.

The bloomer gives to a shapely woman, says the Galveston News, a great opportunity; in fact, two of them.

A Boston girl started on a trip around the globe and before she had gone 1,200 miles she received 85 proposals, she says.

If "equal rights" means anything, it means a man's right to keep out of the way of a woman who is just learning to ride a wheel, says the New York Mail and Express.

Chief Badenoch of Chicago punishes rowdies who assault women in bloomers. He shows gentlemanly instinct. The question of what is a proper costume for a woman is not to be settled by rowdies on the street.

The women of Osnaburg, O., set their dogs on a Canton wheelwoman because she wore bloomers, says the Cleveland World. The women of a Connecticut town about 40 years ago gave one of their sex an order to leave town when she put on the first hoopskirt they ever saw. In six months they were all wearing them.

The Bicycle's "Personal Devil."

The Rev. J. B. Hawthorne of Atlanta, in a recent sermon against the wheelwoman, thus refers to an innocent road ride by the Christian Endeavorers to the historical places surrounding Boston: "Recently," said Mr. Hawthorne, "a great religious convention in an eastern city concluded its exercises by a bicycle race on the streets between 700 men, women and preachers. Could anything less than a personal devil have instigated such a performance?"

We quite agree with Mr. Hawthorne that no one but the devil would be guilty of starting 700 men, women and preachers in a race through such crooked streets as Boston possesses. At the same time, however, it is pertinent to observe that no one but the devil or Mr. Hawthorne could be responsible for this story, no race of any such kind ever having taken place in Boston or elsewhere.—Wheel.

A Pug Dog In the Baby Carrier.

Among the sights of the Oranges is a young woman of East Orange, who, on almost every fair day, can be seen taking her daily spin on her wheel in knickerbockers, with a pug dog comfortably seated on the baby carrier in the front of the machine. The turnout attracts a great deal of attention.—New York Tribune.

A High Gear Defined.

"Paw, what is a high gear on a bicycle?"

"Nowadays, my son, it is simply a ready excuse for the rider when he becomes fagged on a long run, or is beaten in a sprint up hill, down hill, on the level and almost anywhere else."—Wheel.

Good Old Roads and Washington Calves.

The bicycle will unquestionably give us back in the end the good old roads that preceded the death of the stagecoach. If it also gives us the fine old knickerbockers and calves of George Washington, it will add still more to our gratitude.—New York Tribune.

The Wheel Output For 1896.

This year will probably result in the making and selling of fully 400,000 wheels. Next year will see an increase of at least 250,000 in the output, which will place the total issue of 1896 at 650,000 wheels.—American Wheelman.

Paris and the Cycling Rage.

In Paris an average of 1 out of every 72 people ride bicycles. It is estimated that 1 out of every 80 of those physically capable ride.

S.S.S.

Mr. A. H. Cransby, of No. 158 Kerr St., Memphis, Tenn., writes that his wife had cancer which had eaten two large holes in her breast, and which the best physicians of the surrounding country treated, and pronounced incurable. Her grandmother and aunt had died of and when told this, the most eminent specialists of New York, under whose treatment she was placed, declared her case was hopeless. All treatment having failed, she was given up to die. S. S. S. was recommended, and astonishing as it may seem, a few bottles cured her sound and well.

Our treatise on this disease will be sent free to any address.

THE DR. J. H. MCLEAN MEDICINE CO., St. Louis, Mo.

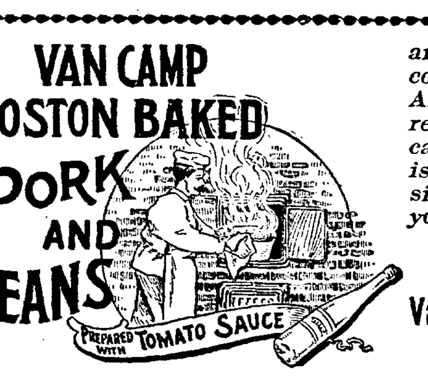

GENTLEMEN: For about ten years I suffered with a pain in my back which I thought was caused by a strain. Sometimes it got so bad I could not stand upright or ride in my buggy. I read in your almanac of symptoms that I recognized as my own, which led me to the conclusion that my trouble was disease in the kidneys. I immediately began using

DR. J. H. McLEAN'S LIVER AND KIDNEY BALM.

It proved to be the right medicine and reached the spot. I soon lost all pain and have better health than ever before. It is more than a year now since I quit using it and have not had a pain or sick day in all that time. It is certainly a wonderful medicine for the kidneys.

Yours truly,

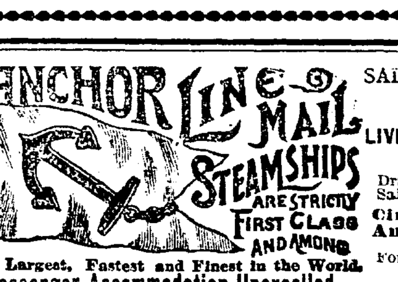

JNO. H. ALBIN,

Man and Lion Dead.

Fred Walton, a stockman of Presidio county who arrived at San Antonio, Tex., recently, states that two sheep herders were passing along a mountain trail, when they came upon the mangled remains of Thomas Derton, a well known ranchman of the county. There was a trail of blood leading away from the body, and they followed it for a distance of 200 yards, when they came upon the dead body of a large mountain lion. It was plain that the man and beast had had a fight to the death. The lion was covered with knife wounds, and it was evident that the battle had been a fierce one.—St. Louis Globe-Democrat.

JUMPED OFF AN ENGINE.

Willie Foster Receives Painful Injuries to His Head.

The Pennsylvania Will Adopt Electricity on Its Brunswick and Millstone Branch—Local Affairs.

William Fosler, the young son of Section Foreman Christian Fosler, of the Wabash, was seriously injured a short distance west of Fairfield avenue, at 3:30 o'clock yesterday afternoon. The lad climbed upon a new engine, which Engineer John Carroll had out on its trial trip, and when it began to move along pretty lively Willie became frightened and jumped off. When his feet struck the gravel the impetus carried him forward, and his head coming in contact with the ties, he was knocked senseless. He was picked up by the railway men and taken to Dr. Enslen's office. The lad's scalp was badly cut and torn and it took several stitches to close the gashes. The knees, elbows and hands of the boy were also painfully bruised and skinned, but these injuries will not prove serious. Christian Fosler resides at 76 Taylor street.

HORSESHOE CURVE TO BE BEAUTIFIED.

Before next summer the beauties of the famous horseshoe curve, on the Pennsylvania road will be greatly enhanced by an immense artificial lake, which is to be created by means of a large impounding dam, work on which is now in progress. Two objects are effected by the construction of the dam. One is to secure an ample supply of water for Altoona, and one which will never fail, but in doing this the effect this large body of water will have on the scenery of Kittanning Point was also considered. It will be the largest basin of water in the state of Pennsylvania, covering thirty-two acres of ground, with an average depth of twenty-six feet, the capacity of the basin being 350,000,000 gallons of water. The Pennsylvania joins with the city in construction, as it will be of great value to the railroad company in supplying its locomotives at Altoona with water, and also its immense shops at that point.

BRIEF MENTION.

George Wood went to Chicago last night on business for the electric works.

J. S. Evans, superintendent of telegraph of the Nickel Plate, was in the city yesterday.

The electric works this morning shipped two sixty-light dynamos to New Castle, Pa.

Supt. J. B. Barnes, of Springfield, Ill., is in the city on business connected with the Wabash.

Joseph Bushing, of the Bass works has returned from Toledo and this morning resumed work.

W. F. Patton, who was visiting his parents in South Whitley, has resumed his run on the Nickel Plate road.

This afternoon Al. Bender left for Philadelphia, where he has secured a position with an electric lighting company.

John C. Koegel, Ed. Klett, Chris. Seibold and Andy Thaine made a run on their wheels Sunday to Auburn and return.

William Hulse, who was visiting here a week, returned to Baltimore yesterday, where he is employed in the electric works.

G. U. Wilcox and John Murphy, painters in the Pittsburg shops, are sick. The latter is the son of Foreman Sam Murphy.

George Klingenberger, moulder at the Bass works, is suffering with a severe attack of rheumatism, and is unable to work.

Amil Rost has quit railroading and returned to wheelmaking. This morning he took a position in the Olds Wagon works.

Ben Pettit has returned from Mackinac Island, fully restored to health, and this morning he resumed his old position in the electric works, after an absence of several months. Mr. Pettit was suffering with rheumatism.

W. E. Lindoerfer, machinist in the Wabash shops at Ashley, Ind., is the guest of Machinist J. C. Gehring, of the shops in this city.

Dispatcher P. J. Raidy, of the Pennsylvania offices, and his mother went to Columbia City this morning to spend the day with friends.

Mr. and Mrs. M. B. Volz will go to Chicago next Saturday to spend a week with friends. Mr. Volz is employed in the Pittsburg shops.

Mrs. Ed. Mundt, wife of the electrician in the Pittsburg shops, and her children went to New Haven this morning to stay a week.

The Chicago and Erie railroad is erecting additions to its shops at Huntington, Ind, enlarging the boiler shops and the tank repairing rooms.

Nickel Plate Engineer F. P. Sleeper will be the guest of his wife's parents, near Boston, for the next thirty days. He left for that city last night.

Miss Emilie Tyler, telegrapher at the Wabash offices, who has been in West Lebanon, Ind., for the past three weeks, will return home this week.

W. H. Babcock, father of O. L., the street car conductor, is visiting in Cooperstown, N. Y. He writes that the fruit crop in that state is a failure.

Hugh Wilson, a Nickel Plate train dispatcher, has returned from Maxinkuckee, where he was spending a vacation with a party of friends from Huntington.

Owing to the illness of Mrs. Cairnes, wife of Foreman Frank Cairnes, of the erecting department, Pittsburg shops, that gentleman is unable to attend to his shop duties.

After a month's outing at Clear Lake, Engineer George Cooper is again manipulating the throttle of a Nickel Plate engine. His family was with him at the lake.

John F. Naylor, yard clerk at the Wabash, is enjoying his annual visit with his parents in Ohio this week, and George F. B. Freeby is looking after the clerical duties.

Contractor Henry Hilgeman is putting the finishing touches upon Frank Tilbury's nine room house on Columbia avenue. The building is one of the neatest and most convenient in Lakeside.

The whitewashing machine is now engaged in beautifying the interior of the shops east of Lafayette street, the last to be whitewashed. Next week the whitewasher will be taken to Chicago.

J. H. Fry, chief clerk in the office of the Pennsylvania company and secretary of the Fort Wayne club, completed his summer outing in northern Michigan last week and is at his desk again.

Wabash train No. 43 will have a special car attached to it Sunday night for the accommodation of about fifty of our citizens, who are going to Indianapolis to participate in the Labor day celebration.

Members of the American Ticket Brokers' association have received notice that H. D. Smith, of Detroit, and A. J. Morton, of Findlay, Ohio, have been expelled for alleged violations of the rules of the association.

The report of the receivers of the Northern Pacific railroad for the year ending June 30, 1895, shows gross earnings, $17,434,981; decrease, $467,095; net earnings, $6,115,299; increase, $963,864 Surplus, $535,974, against a deficiency of $1,281,351 in 1894.

Gabriel E. Duvall, superintendent of the dining car service of the Baltimore and Ohio, died at Atlantic City on Friday of meningitis. He had been with the Baltimore and Ohio sixteen years, and for eight years had held the position above mentioned.

Engineer James Jones and Fireman James Furlong now run one of the most handsome freight engines on the Third district of the Nickel Plate. It is No. 26, which has just been turned out of the Stony Island shops after being thoroughly repaired and repainted.

There were twenty-five Fort Wayne citizens on Wabash train No. 45, which left this city at 8 o'clock this morning. The party were en route to Peru, where a street fair is in progress this week. Today is "governor's day" and Governor Matthews and his staff are in attendance at the fair.

Yard Foreman Herman Brandt and Robert Renfrew, of the Rhinesmith & Simonson factory, drove out to Everett Lake Sunday and shortly after their return home the horse, which belonged to Mr. Renfrew, laid down and died. This is another evidence of the necessity of an electric line to Everett Lake.

The excursion business is nearly ended for this season, and this week there are only two announced. One is the Bortons, to Plymouth, tomorrow, and the other is that of the Y. M. C. A. to Eagle Lake next Thursday. On Monday, September 2, the Butcher's union will have an excursion to Rome City.

The Pennsylvania is preparing to put in service the trolley system on its new Brunswick and Millstone branch, the equipment to be the same as the Mount Holly division, and at no remote date the company will, it is stated, trolley its Newton Square branch westward from Fernwood.

The Knights Templar commanderies, in passing over the New York Central, are not allowed to carry decorations on the cars they occupy. Some years ago the New York Central had to pay heavy damages for injury to a passenger caused by a banner, and since then the above rule has been enforced

President Ingalls, of the Big Four, has given instructions to the effect that, wherever possible, if a married man is killed in the company's employ his wife or children, if old enough, should be given employment to aid in supporting the family. A number of wives of deceased employes, under the order, are now in the company's service.

The Pennsylvania road proper owes much of its prosperity to its feeders west of Pittsburg. But for the Pittsburg, Fort Wayne and Chicago, the Panhandle and other western feeders its business would be cut down at least 60 per cent. The parent line gathers an immense freight and passenger traffic from its roads scattered over twelve western states.

Mr. E. D. Kenna, who for years has been general attorney for the St. Louis and San Francisco Railroad company, with headquarters in St. Louis, has been appointed general solicitor of the Atchison, Topeka and Santa Fe system. He will on September 15, succeed Mr. Geo. R. Peck, who resigned to accept a similar position with the Chicago, Milwaukee and St. Paul railway.

The fishing party, composed of a number of Pennsylvania railway men, which has been spending a ten days' vacation at Snow Island, will leave for this city tomorrow. This morning Dispatcher Charles LaRue received a letter from one of the party, stating that they had that morning caught 252 fish. The letter failed to state, however, whether the fish were bass, pickeral or minnows.

Knights of the Maccabees.

The state commander writes us from Lincoln, Neb., as follows: "After trying other medicines for what seemed to be a very obstinate cough in our two children, we tried Dr. King's New Discovery and at the end of two days the cough entirely left them. We will not be without it hereafter, as our experience proves that it cures where all other remedies fail."—Signed, F. W. Stevens, State Com.—Why not give this great medicine a trial, as it is guaranteed and trial bottles are free, at Dreier & Bro.'s drug store. Regular sizes, 50c and $1.00.

It May Do as Much for You.

Mr. Fred Miller, of Irving, Ill., writes that he had a severe kidney trouble for many years, with severe pains in his back and also that his bladder was affected. He tried many so-called kidney cures, but without any good result. About a year ago he began use of Electric Bitters and found relief at once. Electric Bitters is especially adapted to the cure of all kidney and liver troubles and often gives almost instant relief. One trial will prove our statements. Price only 50c for large bottle. At Dreier & Bros.'s drug store.

A NEW CITIZEN TRAIN.

The Hair of the Philosopher of Madison Square Getting Black.

A remarkable change is coming over George Francis Train, the sage of Madison square. His bronzed face and leonine head, with its mass of snow white hair, may soon be a thing of the past, for youth is upon him again, and his locks are turning black. The change began about a month ago, he says, and was noticed first by one of the youngsters who find in him so stanch a friend.

With this comes another change in the man who built the Pacific railway; who established the first line of clipper ships to Australia and China, and who had $90,000 a year income, made by himself, before he was 20 years old. His eccentricities, so called, are not as marked as formerly. He is doing a lot of thinking, and in a circular he has recently sent about the world is a quotation concluding as follows:

"When Train concludes to become sane."

His ownership to a great tract of land in the center of the city of Omaha is claimed by many of the best real estate lawyers in the country.

When asked about the rejuvenation and the possibilities of his re-entrance into public life, Mr. Train said: "Curious, isn't it, about my hair? I may, as my friends hope, decide to assert my rights to my property. As to public life, what is it? I have been through it. Many of the greatest men of the times —Bulwer, Victor Hugo, Lincoln and Seward—were my intimate friends. They have gone. I am content to rest as I am. Still, I am as young and well as ever. The future may mean much or little to me. We shall see."—New York World.

CORN TO BURN!

Eli Perkins Thinks the Crop Will Bring $800,000,000.

After traveling through Illinois, Iowa, Missouri, Kansas and Nebraska Eli Perkins passed through Chicago recently. When questioned about the corn crop, he said:

"We will have corn to burn. Recently the best judges estimated the crop at 2,600,000,000 bushels, but when I got to Lincoln, Neb., I found the only bad corn in the country. I found a section which should raise 100,000,000 bushels destroyed. It was already burned."

"Can you bound the section?"

"Yes; draw a line from St. Joseph, Mo., to Columbus, Neb., and all that triangular section of this line to within 20 miles of the Missouri is dried up—ruined."

"What will the crop be worth?"

"At 25 cents a bushel it will bring $800,000,000. Now," continued Mr. Perkins, "compare this corn crop with the cotton crop. Last year the south raised 9,000,000 bales of cotton, for which the farmer got $25 a bale, or $225,000,000. A bale of cotton is worth about the same as an Iowa hog. No single man in the south can make over eight bales of cotton. What would be the poverty of an Iowa farmer with only eight hogs to show in the fall?

"Then think how many people this corn crop would feed in China and Japan, where four bushels of millet, barley or rice is a year's ration. Why, our corn crop would feed 625,000,000 people!"—Chicago Times-Herald.

Old Postage Stamps.

In philately many harmless persons still find recreation and some dealers substantial profit. During the season for the sale by auction of rare postage stamps, which seems to be just now drawing to a close, one firm alone has disposed of specimens of the aggregate value of £20,000. Messrs. Ventom, Bull & Cooper, who hold the record, took £1,281 at their last sale, and the lots included a collection of 3,100 varieties, which fetched £210; a pair of New Zealand, watermark "N. Z.," 1d. brown, which sold for £32; a Finland, errors, 5p. and 10p., for which £30 was obtained, and a block of four Great Britain, 1854, 6d, violet, unused, which realized £26.—London Telegraph.

What We May Expect.

(Congress in the year 2000.) The bloomer party was debating on its suffrage bill in a manner that showed the man party that if something wasn't done soon their cause would be a lost one. The grim visaged senator from New York whispered something into the ear of the page standing near him who then went to the rear of the hall. Just as the bloomer party was about to call a quorum a voice yelled, "A mouse!" (Press dispatch, "Congress adjourned.")—Syracuse Post.

The Only Woman Sheriff.

Mrs. Helen C. Stewart, formerly a resident of New Jersey, has been appointed sheriff of Green county, Mo. Although many women have held various offices in the western states, Mrs. Stewart is the only woman in the United States who ever held the office of sheriff.—New York World.

Room For It.

"Yes," said the humorous writer as he glanced at the balloon environment of his sister's arm, "yes, there should be room in a woman's sleeve for at least one more joke."—Boston Transcript.

Cycle Slang.

What a lot of slang verbiage has grown up out of the bicycle. The youth who talks boastfully and erratically is called down by the apt suggestion of the bicycle young woman with the remark, "Freddie, your lamp is out." The "road-hog" is borrowed from old New England nomenclature, but "scorching" is of the bicycle's own lingo, and means an undue haste in driving a wheel. The exhausted bicyclist on the road and needing refreshments, suggests, "Let's stop here and pump up," referring to the fagged condition of the pneumatic. Bicycle girls are "Bloomers," and "here comes my bloomer" is equivalent to here comes my girl. A policeman is "a header," and the cyclometer is "the ticker." "He has lost his tire" is equivalent to "having tacks in your head" or "being off your trolly," and no doubt there is plenty more of the same.—Lewiston Journal.

$100 Reward, $100.

The readers of this paper will be pleased to learn that there is at least one dreaded disease that science has been able to cure in all its stages and that is catarrh. Hall's Catarrh Cure is the only positive cure now known to the medical fraternity. Catarrh being a constitutional disease, requires a constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure is taken internally, acting directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system, thereby destroying the foundation of the disease, and giving the patient strength by building up the constitution and assisting nature in doing its work. The proprietors have so much faith in its curative powers, that they offer One Hundred Dollars for any case that it fails to cure. Send for list of Testimonials.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 27.—For Indiana: Fair, variable winds.

NEWS NOTES.

Major L. A. Centlivre is at Toledo attending the races this week.

Miss Rose Batson, of the Rich hotel, is the guest of friends at Batson, Ohio.

B. W. Applegate has resigned his position as city local reporter of THE SENTINEL.

A handsome new residence is being erected on Runyon avenue by Peter Wickliffe.

Dixon Edgerton is out on the road in the interest of the Blickensderfer Typewriter company.

Miss Anna M. Matters, of New Albany, is the guest of Miss Leona Sanders, of West Main street.

John Froehly, a prominent merchant of Pierceton, returned home yesterday after spending Sunday in the city.

Miss Mary Coolican, of Poplar street, has returned home after a month's visit with relatives and friends in Ohio.

A very important business meeting of the young people of the Church of Christ will be held at the church tonight.

Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Brooks, of Huntington, will arrive in the city tonight to attend the funeral of their grandmother, Mrs. C. Brooks.

Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Davis, of 126 Harrison street, have returned home, after visiting with relatives and friends for three weeks in Adrian, Mich.

Messrs. Fred Graffe, Otto Klinkenberg and A. H. Staub left today for Hartford City and Montpelier to look after their interests in the oil field.

Wm. F. Meyer, formerly of the firm of Meyer & Niemeyer, is preparing to open a gents' furnishing store at the corner of Broadway and Jefferson street.

The Decatur Democrat says: "Dr. Numbers and wife left for Fort Wayne Saturday, where they will spend a few days with Mrs. Beers, a sister of the doctor."

Division No. 1 of the A. O. H. will go to Muncie on September 8 to attend the dedicatory exercises of the Catholic church. The City band will accompany them.

The Labor day races at Huntington promise to be exciting. Messrs. Black, Peltier, Heller, Goff, Cohagen, Alter and Greenich, of Fort Wayne, will compete. Fred Blaising, of New Haven, will also start. A. L. Randall will be the referee.

The Logansport Reporter says: "Charley Seigmund, of Pilling's shoe store, is taking a week's vacation at Fort Wayne. His wife will join him there today.—Dr. Wagner, of Fort Wayne, formerly Panhandle physician here, is in the city for a day or two."

Yesterday's Kendallville Standard says: "Misses Grace and Daisy Davis, of Fort Wayne, who have been spending the summer at Rome City, spent Sunday in this city, the guests of Miss Minnie Gappinger. They returned to Rome City this afternoon.—Miss Libbie Broach, of Fort Wayne, is home on a short visit."

A Young People's Society of Christian Endeavor was organized Sunday afternoon at the North Side mission and the following officers were elected: President, Fred Barthold; vice president, Miss Lottie Bischoff; secretary, Charles Heathman; treasurer, Miss Myrtle Weaver. Cottage prayer meetings will be held every Tuesday evening.

These personal items are taken from last evening's Huntington Herald: "Misses Dolla and Bessie Rich, of Fort Wayne, were guests of their cousin, Landlord Shepler, of the Exchange, today. They were en route home from a visit in Ohio.—Miss May Studor, who has been the guest of the Misses Gusman, returned to her home in Fort Wayne yesterday."

Robert McCullough, the night distributing clerk at the postoffice, and W. T. Kanning, one of the mail carriers, left Sunday evening for a two weeks' vacation tour through the eastern states. They will visit at New York, Boston, Washington and Garwood, N. J., during their absence. At the latter place they will be the guests of Will Griswold, formerly of this city.

Concerning Evangelist Chapman, who is to hold a series of union revival services in this city during the fall, the Warsaw Daily Times of last evening says: "The union services held at the opera house, and addressed by Evangelist Chapman, on Sunday evening, was an immense affair, the house being crowded to its utmost capacity, both below and in the gallery. Indeed the attendance was so great, and so many failed to gain an entrance into the opera house, that an "overflow" meeting was held in the M. E. church, near by. Evangelist Chapman preached a powerful discourse, and was listened to with deep attention. The Rev. Sunday, known as the ex-base ball revivalist, preached to the overflow audience, and convinced all present of his ability as a speaker."

Louis Centlivre went to Toledo this morning.

DEAR SIR:—I desire to convey my gratitude and unbounded satisfaction, through you, to the U. B. Mutual Aid Society of Pennsylvania for the prompt settlement of my claim of $1,000 in full, upon the life of my late husband, Michael Ryan, deceased.

The courteous treatment and speedy payment of this loss, in this hour of my bereavement, assures me that entire confidence can be placed in the fidelity of the society to fulfill all its promises, and I cheerfully add my testimonial to its worth and usefulness, and unhesitatingly recommend it to all seeking insurance.

Again thanking you and the society, I am yours very sincerely,
MATILDA RYAN.

P. S.—Mr. Ryan's policy was dated April 13, 1895. He paid only two quarterly premiums.

I hereby return my heartfelt thanks to the doctors, especially to the professors, of the Medical college, and all who so kindly rendered assistance during my late affliction in the death of my husband.

A GRAND PAGEANT.

The Knights Templar Parade Eclipses Previous Efforts.

The Baked Bean Town Overcrowded With Masons From Every State and Territory.

BOSTON, Mass., Aug. 27.—Seven hundred and fifty thousand people saw the parade of over 25,000 Sir Knights Templar today, and with one accord pronounced it the grandest pageant ever witnessed in Boston.

People were everywhere; in the streets, on the sidewalks, on the roofs of buildings and street cars, and clinging to the tops of telegraph poles when ever the vigilance of the police and linemen was relaxed for a moment, in wagons and drays, filled with seats, in the side streets and on hundreds of grand stands, large and small, along the route.

The clear skies and sunshine of the past two days had given away to a partially clouded sky, but finally the sun broke through the clouds, vigorously endeavoring to drive the mists away.

Although a majority of the Sir Knights spent last night, until a late hour, entertaining friends or being entertained, they were astir early this morning.

Trains from every direction brought thousands of uniformed Templars and their friends to swell the host. At the depots the crowds were of almost suffocating density. From every state commanderies began to arrive at an early hour and thousands of spectators came with them. The streets near the depots echoed with the din of scores of bands and the tramp of arriving knights and their escorts. The railroad men were completely overwhelmed by the magnitude of the crowd.

Every where within a radius of twenty miles of the state house, the day is practically a holiday. Most of the factories in near-by cities are closed and the operatives helped to swell the crowds who watched the procession. The police appointments were well nigh perfect.

Shortly before the parade started, platoons of officers cleared every street through which the Sir Knights were to pass and roped them off, and until the last division had passed no traffic of any kind was allowed on those thoroughfares.

The lines of the parade were formed in thirteen divisions in a column of double sections. At 9 o'clock the commanderies of the first division began to gather on the south side of Commonwealth avenue, near Berkeley street, and at about the same hour the other divisions began to take up their positions in the avenue of the Bay district. There was the usual delay consequent to the formation of great processions, but all was in readiness shortly after 10 o'clock and by 10:30 the long line was in motion, the signal for the start being greeted by the cheers and salutes of 10,000 people that gathered near the start.

As the great body of knights moved down Commonwealth avenue the spectacle was an inspiring one. The music of 100 bands and the applause of the thousands of people filled the air. Gaily bedecked horses pranced at the head of each division, while the contrast of the dignified black cloth of the uniforms, of the waving of the rich plumes and the silver and gold emblems which are conspicuous in the Templar's uniform, combined to present a scene that was pleasing and impressive.

STARTLING REVELATION

The Trunk Which Hid Howard Pietzel's Body Is Found in Irvington.

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind., Aug. 27.—Detectives Geier and Gary, of Philadelphia, today discovered at Irvington, a suburb of this city, a house in which H. H. Holmes lived three days last October. They found there portions of a trunk in which it is supposed Howard Pietzel's body was conveyed and are now digging in hopes of finding the boy's remains.

COUNTERFEITERS RAIDED.

Eight of a Gang of Fifteen Landed in Jail.

PERRY, Okla., Aug. 27.—Four deputy marshals made a raid on a counterfeiters' den in a cave in the Kaw country yesterday and captured eight of a gang of fifteen, who were at work making counterfeits. Officers have been on the outlook for the gang for six months. The men arrested are, Big Henry, Clark Cross, Old Man Cross, Joe Roberts, Charles Boyd, Shorty Berry and two others. The officers are in pursuit of the seven men who escaped.

WAS POSTED IN PARIS.

The Infernal Machine Which Injured M. Jodkowitz.

PARIS, Aug. 27.—The police have definitely ascertained that the letter containing the infernal machine, which exploded in the office of Baron Alphonse de Rothschild on Saturday afternoon, severely injuring his confidential clerk, M. Jodkowitz, was posted in this city.

LAWYERS MEET.

Over Three Hundred of Them Assemble at Detroit.

DETROIT, Aug. 27.—An intellectual looking assembly of 300 leading jurists and members of the bar was present in Y. M. C. A. hall at 10:30 o'clock this morning when President James C. Carter, of New York, called to order the eighteenth annual convention of the American Bar association. After thanking the Detroit representatives of the profession for the cordial reception tendered the visitors, the president read a short list of the most noted jurists present, who were invited to seats upon the platform. President Carter then proceeded with the reading of his address.

WOUNDED IN A DUEL.

George Morris and Jose Salsasar Settle a Dispute.

The Weapons Used Were Pistols and the American Fell at the First Shot.

GUADALAJURA, Mex., Aug. 27.—Geo. S. Morris, an American mining man, was shot and wounded in a duel at Ameca, a town west of here, by a Spaniard named Jose Salsasar. The two men had a quarrel over a business deal and the Spaniard issued the challenge to fight a duel. Morris accepted and seconds were chosen. The fight took place on the outskirts of the town and at the first shot Morris received a bullet in his breast. He was carried from the field. A strong effort has been made to keep the affair quiet, as the opposition of the authorities to dueling is very pronounced. No arrests have yet been made. Morris came to Mexico two years ago from Pennsylvania.

AN OHIO TRAGEDY.

Three Men Shot During the Course of a Riot.

WAPAKONETA, Ohio, Aug 27.—3 p. m.—There has been a fearful fight here and the riotous proceedings are still going on. Three men have already been shot and others have been injured in other ways.

THE VICTIMS.

4 P. M.—The names of the victims are Josephus Tiller, shot through the bowels; will die.

Albert Seifert, shot through the arm; not serious.

Oscar Voorhees, shot through the hand.

The men were employed on the water works trenches and yesterday morning they went on a strike and declared that no one should go to work until their demands were satisfied. Some of them went to work at noon today, but were driven out. The contractor ordered Lewis Vanskiver and another party to fill some trenches and cover some pipe in the Second ward.

They began work and a crowd of strikers congregated and commenced beating Vanskiver over the head with clubs and shovel handles, breaking the largest ones by force of the blows. After he had been struck several times he pulled a pistol and fired, with the above result.

THE BOWERS CASE.

The Police Board Will Render a Decision Tomorrow.

The board of safety was in session last night to conclude the examination in the case of Officer Bowers and witnesses were called and examined. The first witness was Mrs. Egg, at whose house it was charged that Officer Bowers had reached in through an open window in the side of the house and caught hold of Miss Lowry, who was sleeping on a lounge or cot just inside the window on the night of June 4, 1895. There were a number of other witnesses examined, but no evidence of a specially interesting character other than that which THE SENTINEL has already given was elicited. The only real evidence in the case is that of Miss Lowry and Officer Bowers, the one indicating the later's guilt and the other his innocence.

The police board completed its examination last evening, but they will not render any decision in the matter until tomorrow.

WOMAN MISSING.

Fears of Foul Play Entertained by Her Friends.

HOUGHTON, Mich., Aug. 27.—Mrs. Philip Schuermann, wife of the manager of the S. Schuerman Browing company, left the residence of John Nelson, in West Houghton, at 9:30 o'clock last night to walk home, a distance of three and one half miles. Since then absolutely no trace of her whereabouts has been found and foul play is feared. Searching parties are hunting for clews and the lake may be dragged.

TRAINMEN INJURED.

Engineer Shea and Fireman Larimore Are the Victims.

Patrick Shea, engineer, and Fireman Chas. Larimore were injured yesterday by jumping from their engine to avoid a collision, just west of the city.

Shea's ankle was sprained and he is now confined to his home. Larrimore had his face badly cut.

STILL UNCERTAIN

Is the Political Situation in Pennsylvania.

Senator Quay is Positive His Faction is in the Lead, and His Enemies Are Equally Confident of Success.

HARRISBURG, Pa., Aug 27.—The political situation here today appears to be just as uncertain as ever. Neither faction will give out positive figures, leaders contenting themselves with the statement that their faction is on top. At the anti-Quay headquarters David Martin and C L Magee possess the appearance of serene confidence which has characterized their every action during the past twenty four hours. They say the fight is over and that Quay is badly whipped. At the Quay headquarters the information is just the opposite. Ex-Chairman Cooper, Congressman Robinson and Senator Quay himself appear just as confident as ever that they have enough delegates to control the convention. The present prospect is that there will be two sets of tickets and an inevitable clash of authority. Whether the clash will be carried to the extent of two conventions will probably be decided by the events of the day. The leaders of both factions held conferences this morning. Manager Markley, of the Harrisburg opera house, announces this afternoon that Chairman Gilkeson has bought off the dramatic company which was to hold forth on the stage tonight and the keys of the building are now in his possession and will be delivered to no one but Mr. Gilkeson. This appears to insure the anti Quay people in their possession of the convention hall. The state committee held an adjourned meeting this forenoon, Chairman Gilkeson defending himself on the ground that the meeting had not been properly called. Temporary Chairman Cooper reported that there were seventy-five of the 121 members present, personally or by proxy. The report of the committee on credentials was favorable to the Quay contestants from Wyoming county and the First and Fifth wards of Philadelphia. No action was taken regarding the Northumberland county contest. The committee took a recess until 11 o'clock tonight.

YACHT RUN DOWN.

Robert W. Inman's Pleasure Craft Comes to Grief

And the Owner is Missing and is Thought to Have Lost His Life in the Water.

NEW YORK, Aug. 27.—Up to 10:30 o'clock this morning nothing had been heard from Robert W. Inman, jr., who was on board his yacht Adelaide last night when it was struck by the Iron Steamboat company's steamer Perseus off Norton's Point. It is quite possible, however, that he is safe and that, not realizing the anxiety which his absence occasions, he has neglected to send any message to his office or to his bachelor apartments. All the others who were on board the yacht Adelaide with Mr. Inman are accounted for.

GRAPHIC DESCRIPTION OF THE ACCIDENT.

Captain Jacobs, of the Adelaide, made a statement today regarding the collision. He said he was at the wheel when the Perseus struck the yacht. His boat was thrown broadside against the steamer and was rapidly nearing the port paddle wheel when he ran forward, caught the rail of the steamer, helped one woman aboard and the next instant found himself forced to board the steamer as the boats parted. He later returned to the yacht by the steamer's life boat and steered the Adelaide, which was not seriously damaged, to the quarters of the Atlantic Yacht club South Brooklyn. When the Adelaide reached the yacht club house she had aboard five persons, the captain, the steward and the boy, Lafayette Jacques, of the crew, and Mr. Evans and Miss Norton. Mrs. Evans and Doran, one of the crew, were taken on board the Perseus. Neither the captain nor the steward observed Mr. Inman's movements after the collision. B S. Clarke, who is associated with Mr. Inman in business, said that he felt great anxiety for Mr. Inman's safety. He thought it almost certain that if the missing yachtsman were in a position to do so, he would have communicated with his friends at once. Mr. Inman was a strong swimmer and might have made either shore of the narrows, but in a condition too exhausted to send word. Then some hope is rested upon the report that a passing sloop picked up some one from the yacht

INDIAN TROUBLES

Break Out Anew in Pend d' Orielle District.

The Reds Claim the Territory as Their Reservation and Drive the Settlers From the Land.

SPOKANE, Wash., Aug. 27.—Trouble has again broke out between Kalispel Indians and settlers along the east ridge of the Pend d'Oriella river, in Idaho, over the disputed possession of what the Indians claim is their reservation, but which is in reality government land. A large delegation of white settlers came to this city today and stated that they were driven off from their farms by Indians, who threatened them with death if they dared to return. The red skins forcibly took possession of the homes and property of the whites and told the latter that such was their instructions from Indian Agent Budd. The settlers are preparing to go back armed and in force and drive the Indians out of the neighborhood. The Indians are ugly and the situation is deemed to be serious.

WEALTH TO POVERTY.

Remarkable Career of a Man in His Second Childhood.

Came to America From Servia Two Years Ago With $200,000, and is Now a Pauper.

PORTLAND, Ore., Aug 27.—A Servian, traveling under the name of John Gibovich, left for the east today, accompanied by a man who, he claims, is a cousin of the ex king of Servia. The man is seventy eight years old and has been a waiter in a Spokane restaurant the past four months. He came to America two years ago with $200,000, so the story goes, which he squandered in New York and San Francisco. In the latter place he was known as an Italian count and, it is said, moved in high society. Gibovich says he had a commission to escort the man to his native country.

Settlers Receive Notice to Quit Their Lands.

The Order Issues From the War Department and It Deprives 1,500 Persons of Their Homes.

PORT TOWNSEND, Wash., Aug. 27.—Consternation has been caused in this and adjoining counties by the appearance of an army lieutenant and a squad of men with instructions to all settlers on government reserves to vacate the same before September 15 or be removed by the troops. This move is the outcome of a recent order of the war department and it is conservatively estimated that 1,500 settlers will lose their homes. In early days when the settlement of Washington was beginning the government took occasion to set aside much valuable land on which it was intended to establish the Indians. These reservations on the part of the government exceeded the needs of the occasion and as it never made an attempt to take up the lands, many pioneers settled upon the tracts which, by intelligent cultivation, have been developed into the finest farming lands in the state. It is feared here that trouble will ensue should the government attempt to forcibly take from the settlers the homes which they have built by many years of toil. It was claimed by some that this action of the department is simply preliminary to the extensive and much needed fortification of Puget Sound.

GIVE UP THE FIGHT.

Harlem Races Declared Off and Stakes Withdrawn.

CHICAGO, Aug 27.—All racing at Harlem has been declared off. The track officials, after a conference today, decided that the injunction issued against them last Saturday all further attempt at running the track impossible and all stakes were accordingly declared off. The injunction was obtained by the Civic Federation from Judge Gibbons and, while permitting racing, forbade gambling.

LOCAL LINES.

Mrs. William Zutermeister has returned from Richmond, where she was visiting friends a few days.

Miss Lotta Cramer, of West DeWald street, has left for Toledo to be the guest of relatives for a week.

Jerry Rayel, who was the guest of Miss Jennie Haverly over Sunday returned to his home at Crestline, Ohio, at noon today.

B. Ellert and son, Ben, are visiting at Detroit and Windsor, Canada. Mr. Ellert writes that it reminds him of Paris—everything is "parlez vous Francais."

Frank Aurentz has returned from a trip to Niagara Falls, Buffalo, Detroit and Toledo. Frank wrote a number of interesting letters home while on route.

Deputy Sheriff Al. Melching this afternoon left for Edgerton, to arrest one Elmer Little, charged with stealing twenty bales of hay from a Wabash railway car.

The funeral of the late Mrs. Catharine Brooks will occur from the residence of her son, H. C. Brooks, 269 West DeWald street, tomorrow afternoon, at 2:30. Rev. J. S. Ainslie will officiate.

Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Grimme today are celebrating the golden anniversary of their marriage. A large number of friends and relatives from a distance are here participating in the festivities.

On the evening of September 2 the New Haven Stars will give a Labor Day ball at Stock's opera house, New Haven. The reception committee is Bert M. Gorrell, Lou Krock and Herman Sievers. The floor managers are Charles A Boice and S. A. Blaising.

Alvin Lackey, aged twenty-four years, a farm hand employed on the farm of Preston Chapman, in Pleasant township, died this morning from measles. The body will be brought to the home of his father, Ephriam Lackey, 28 Savilla avenue, from which place the funeral will be held.

Last evening a number of friends gathered at the home of Miss Birdie Zellers to congratulate her on the anniversary of her birth. At the hour of ten a quartet surrounded her. The singing was enjoyed and a pleasant time was had by all. She was also remembered by her friends with many gifts.

CREMATION OF THE DEAD

The Views of Dr. C. B. Stemen and Rev. J. S. Ainslie

On This Interesting Question—Both of Them Speak in Strong Terms Against It.

Dr. C B Stemen, the dean of the Fort Wayne Medical college and one of the prominent physicians of this city, contributes for THE SENTINEL the following interesting article on the cremation of the dead, and as it is a subject which is now coming up for discussion, we give it publication, feeling confident it will interest a large number of our readers. In this connection THE SENTINEL also gives a synopsis of the sermon delivered on Sunday evening by Rev. James S. Ainslie, the pastor of the Congregational church of this city, on the same subject. Both of the gentlemen take strong grounds against the incineration of the dead. The article of Dr Stemen is as follows.

At the time that the great American surgeon, Prof. S D Gross, requested that his body should be cremated and which was accordingly done, there were a number of societies organized for the purpose of establishing crematories in different parts of this country, but up to the present time they have not been liberally patronized. Cremation has been practiced from the earliest times and among many nations. It was practiced by some of the western people and is now in India and some other countries of Asia and by a few tribes of North American Indians as well as by a very small per cent in this country. As stated before, the greatest revival of this subject in this country was after the death of the distinguished surgeon, Prof. S. D Gross. He was favorably and extensively known both in this country and, in fact, among many nations as the greatest of American surgeons, and as he selected this mode of disposing of his body, many of his admirers made similar requests, but up to the present but few have followed his example. The crematories then established have had but few bodies to cremate.

Recently this subject has again been revived and an effort made to have other crematories established.

In this city the Allen county medical society passed resolutions recommending cremation as the best method of disposing of our dead. We were not present at this meeting or their would have been one vote cast against the resolution.

The grounds on which its adoption is urged are those of economy, sanitation and the horror of the slow process of decomposition in the earth. There are in our opinion some serious objections to be urged against cremation. We would not object on the grounds of the Christian religion. Yet we learn from history that it was given up in Europe as Christianity spread and disappeared in Rome during the fourth century. There is no record that it has ever been customarily employed by any Christian nation. The burial of the dead is in accordance with the teachings of the Bible. And we do not believe that any of the advocates of cremation would want to live in any community where the Bible was not read or believed and the best educated men living any where are the believers in the word of God and the more closely any people live in obedience to its teachings the happier and more prosperous they are.

As stated before we do not oppose cremation on this ground, for the God we worship can hold all the atoms of matter in the grasp of his omnipotence and it matters not whether the body be rapidly decomposed by fire or the slower process of decomposition in the earth. The great "I Am" will watch that dust or ashes and whatever portion or particle (if any) is necessary to constitute identity will be brought forth.

But there are other grounds on which we oppose cremation. The one most important objection is that it would destroy the evidence of foul play and many murders would be committed by the giving of deadly poisons, that now probably end only in suits for divorce etc. This objection is a serious one, which in our opinion will prevent it from ever becoming generally adopted.

We know of quite a number of murders committed in this and other states where no suspicion was aroused at the time of death and in some cases not for some time after the body had been buried, when one circumstance after another aroused the suspicion of friends and investigations resulted in finding that a murder had been committed by the administration of a deadly poison. The protection of human life demands that the bodies be buried and not incinerated, as this would destroy all evidence of foul play.

In regard to economy there is no argument that we have yet seen that makes it any more economical than that of burial.

As to cremation being better in a sanitary point of view, we have never seen any scientific arguments that prove this to be true. The earth is the best disinfectant that we have any knowledge of and, while heat such as is necessary to incinerate the body certainly will destroy all germs, so with the earth, we believe that it as effectually destroys all the diseased germs.

Some may ask about typhoid fever germs—they live in water. Yes, but not in the earth. We challenge any one to show us a single case of infection that can be traced to our cemeteries. It cannot be done. Consequently this argument in favor of cremation fails. But the one great objection against cremation is the fact of covering up crime by destroying all evidence that could convict the guilty parties. C B STEMEN

THE SERMON OF REV. AINSLIE

THE SENTINEL would be glad to give the sermon in full of Rev. Ainslie, for it was an able effort, and preached to a large audience, but the crowded condition of our columns necessitates the giving only of a synopsis of the discourse, which is as follows

"By faith Joseph, when he died, made mention of the departing of the children of Israel and gave commandment concerning his bones."

This is a remarkable record, said the speaker, of a dying statesman's anxiety concerning his bones. Egypt was the world's capital and the very center of the world's civilization. Joseph was the real ruler of the realm, though he was second to the king.

But in his dying hour he cares for none of these things. His last message was "Swear to me that you will carry my bones back to Palestine, to the sepulcher of my fathers, where Abraham, Isaac and Jacob rest. Let me slumber with them."

Why should Joseph give this special message concerning his burial? Why should we, as Christian people, have any thought about the final disposition of our bodies, after death?

In the first place, we should regard the body as sacred, because we are fearfully and wonderfully made. Scholars tell us that matter has fulfilled its mission now that the body stands erect, throbbing with a living brain, and beating in a living heart. Man's body is the gem and crown of God's physical creation. Therefore, it should be treated with care in life, and with honor in death.

Secondly, The body is sacred, because it is the instrument of the soul. The body is the temple in which I live, the instrument through which I do all my work in this world. The soul is a city, and the five senses are gateways through which pass all earth's sights and sounds. Through the ear we have heard the messages of love, and a thousand pleasant notes. How do hand and vision protect us in danger! What joy we have had in voice! It carries warning and alarm. Thus the body serves the soul, and becomes sacred by service.

3. Then the body is sacred by reason of its associations. It is a law of our being that objects and places connected with life's deep joys and sorrows become themselves sacred through these associations. The bird lines its nest with down from its own bosom. Thus, the heart, going forward in life, leaves behind some treasure, and perfumes its path. Memory hangs on the tree the whispered confession made beneath its branches. No palace so memorable as the little house where you were reared. Noteworthy forever the cottage where Shakespeare dwelt. But no building ever showed such handiwork as the temple built by divine skill. God hath made the soul's house fair to look upon. Death may close the doors, darken its windows, and pull down its pillars; still, its very ruins are precious, to be guarded with jealous care.

But the objector says: "Should a man care for the old coat or worn out shoe? And what more is the body after death?"

But if it is your mother's? Do you remember her love for you, her care, her nursing you in sickness, her prayers, and tears in your behalf? And when she dies is that body, which has been identified with these ministries, to be treated as nothing, and cast into the furnace?

4. Still, further, this feeling of respect for the body also has a powerful reflex influence on our treatment of the poor. If a poor man, dying, is treated according to his value in society, there is suggested that most dismal of Hood's poems.

"Rattle his bones.
Over the stones
It's only a pauper
Whom nobody owns."

But if every poorest man is a child of God, and destined to immortality, then his body cannot be treated with indignity without a shock to our humane feelings.

5. I mention one more reason why we should hold our bodies in honor in life, and for an honorable burial in death, namely, the sense of identity is largely dependent upon it. The body is a registering machine. Every thought of the brain, every aspiration of the soul is registered on our faces. The base and vulgar man carries the sign of his depravity in his countenance. The saint is good looking. And while the self same body is not raised out of the grave, yet the spiritual body is like unto it.

All these considerations will oppose a lasting resistance to the paganism of burning the dead, now sought to be introduced. It is against nature and revolting to all the finer sensibilities of the heart. It is the liberty of all who wish for incineration to have it. It is urged for sanitary reasons and as a matter of convenience. But it will never become popular, for all the associations of our English-speaking and of our German speaking populations are violated by the attempt to supercede our whole literature, by reducing our friends at once to ashes, and putting them in urns, like labeled sweetmeats on our shelves!

Could anyone sing at the mouth of the furnace, that grandest lyric of death in the English Language? "Unveil thy bosom, faithful tomb," etc.

So let us live that this body shall itself be a cluster of associations and sanctities, and dying, as to the outward and physical life, we shall leave a memory, a faith, clustering affection, spiritual elements and a glorious reappearing when Christ shall come to call us home.

TWELFTH ANNIVERSARY.

The Reformed Orphan's Home Will Celebrate It

At the Beautiful Grounds of the Institution on Sept. 4—The Program for the Occasion.

The Reformed Orphans' home will celebrate its twelfth anniversary on September 4 at the beautiful grounds of the institution, two miles east of the city. Dinner and supper will be served in the basement of the building to all who may desire it. The ladies of the different Reformed churches of the city have united, and together with the executive committee of the board of trustees, are completing the arrangements for a successful celebration. The friends of the orphanage are all cordially invited to attend. Persons going to the anniversary will take the Spy Run electric cars and go out past the School for Feeble Minded Children to the end of the line, where wagons will be waiting to convey passengers to the home.

In the afternoon the usual anniversary services will be held in the grove. The English address will be delivered by Rev A. K Zartman, of Fort Wayne and the German address by Rev. Ferdinand G Zesch, Ph D., of Cincinnati, with introductory remarks by the president of the board, Rev. J. Bachman, D. D, also of Cincinnati. The children of the home will furnish some singing, and a band has been engaged to assist in the entertainment. The board of trustees will hold a meeting at the home at 8 o'clock this evening.

POLICE COURT.

Case Which Came Before Mayor Oakley This Morning.

But two prisoners lined up before his honor in police court this morning. They were Joe Miller and Frank Jeffrie, colored lads, who yesterday were begging in the west end of the city. During the noon hour they called at the home of Officer Flickinger, on West Main street, and that gentleman very promptly gathered them in out of the wet. In lieu of a fine of $14 50 they decided to become guests of Sheriff Clausmeier.

Last evening Officer Hines arrested John Stoehr, a Calhoun street saloonkeeper, for drunkenness. This morning his bail of $10 50 was forfeited.

Officers Dixon and Knock gathered in Frank Barry and Harry Adams for drunkenness last evening. The men are from St. Louis. Barry is a restaurant dish washer and Adams, who has a wooden leg, is accompanying him in his travels. The men were creating a disturbance near the corner of Harrison and Main streets when arrested. Their cases will come up before the mayor this afternoon, at which time the cases against a number of saloonkeepers for violation of the Nicholson law will be heard.

Superintendent of Police Liggett, always on the alert for evil doers, has for some time thought that gambling has been going on in a certain saloon, and today after a little detective work proved the matter to his entire satisfaction. Mr. Liggett states that if the business is not discontinued at once the promoters of the scheme will get it where the bottle got the cork.

WINONA ASSEMBLY.

The Evangelistic Meetings Held by J. Wilbur Chapman.

The Winona Assembly and Summer School at Eagle Lake, entered upon the closing week yesterday. From now on the evangelistic meetings, commenced with such a flow of enthusiasm on Sunday in the Auditorium under the auspices of the noted evangelist, J. Wilbur Chapman, will "hold the boards." At 11 o'clock on Sunday Mr Chapman preached a powerful sermon to a large audience. In the afternoon at 3 o'clock Mr Sunday conducted the service and his exceedingly able and practical discourse appealed to the hearts and minds of all present. Sunday evening the Winona Assembly united with the churches of Warsaw in a union meeting at the opera house, addressed by Mr. Chapman. The crowd was so great that an overflow meeting was necessary and was addressed by Mr. Sunday at the M E church. Each day three special services will be held in the Assembly Auditorium, conducted by Mr. Chapman, viz., at 11 a. m., 3:30 and 7 30 p m. The celebrated Gospel singers, Professor and Mrs Lowe, will add to the enjoyment of each occasion by their sweet singing, which has so delighted multitudes throughout the length and breadth of the land.

OUR CENTENNIAL.

The Directors Hold an Important Business Meeting.

At the meeting of the board of directors of the centennial celebration last evening at the office of Randall & Doughman, it was decided to change the date of the celebration from the 8th to the 15th of October, to continue four days. Committees were appointed to take charge of the special features of the centennial. The report of the soliciting committees are more than satisfactory and demonstrates the great interest which is being taken in the celebration by the citizens. The directors are fitting up room No. 7 in the Arcade as headquarters and will occupy it in a day or two.

Miss Mary Rogers, of East Jefferson street, is on the sick list.

SHOT IN THE BACK.

Ernest Spitler Seriously Wounded While Hunting.

He is Now at the St. Joseph Hospital, and His Recovery is Doubtful—Other Casualties.

As a result of the careless handling of a gun, Ernest Spitler, a young painter, aged about eighteen years, is lying at the point of death at the St. Joseph hospital.

This morning, about 9 o'clock, Spitler accompanied by two other lads, Louis Figel and Edward Jones, aged thirteen and seventeen years respectively, went out a short distance beyond Centlivre's to shoot birds. There were two guns, one a shotgun, the other a twenty-two calibre target rifle, in the party, both the property of young Jones.

The target rifle was in the hands of Figel, the youngest boy in the party, and in attempting to lower the hammer the gun was discharged, the ball entering Spitler's back and penetrating the liver. At the time Spitler was not more than two or three feet from the muzzle of the weapon. After the shooting Spitler walked some distance until meeting a carriage, the driver of which was induced to convey the wounded lad to his home, No. 66 Wells street, from which place the patrol wagon was summoned to take the boy to the hospital, where Dr W H Myers is attending him.

While at work in the new Lau block yesterday afternoon, Frank Hensil, a stonemason, was struck on the head by a falling beam and knocked senseless. The wounded man was taken to his home, on Miner street, where Dr. Van Buskirk sewed up the wound.

Last evening the little daughter of Peter Wysong, the painter, fell while playing and fractured the bones of the right arm below the elbow. Dr. Porter was called and reduced the fracture.

The twelve-year old daughter of August Steepe, of Smith street, met with a painful accident Sunday evening. While playing with a number of small friends, she was thrown to the ground and sustained a fracture of the right hip. Dr Duemling was summoned and rendered the necessary treatment.

THREE MORE DIVORCES!

Jacobs vs. Jacobs, Rogers vs. Rogers.

Cruelty and Drunkenness is the Cause in One Case, and Abandonment in the Other.

David Jacobs has commenced proceedings in the circuit court, through his attorney, J. R. Bittinger, asking that he may be given a divorce from his wife, Anna Jacobs.

In his petition he charges that the defendant has been guilty of cruel and inhuman conduct and was also guilty of drunkenness. He says that she threatened at different times to take his life and that she was in the habit of keeping whisky in the house for her own use, and at one time, he alleges in his petition, she was dead drunk.

The parties were married on the 14th of January, 1892.

The superior court also records a divorce case, in which Dora Rogers asks for a separation from her husband Leslie Rogers. Her attorneys are John Shaffer and Breen & Morris.

The petition states that the parties were married in November, 1885, and lived together until December, 1889, when the defendant abandoned the plaintiff without cause. The plaintiff asks for a divorce, the restoration of her maiden name, Dora Shaffer, and the custody of the two children born to them.

Jennie M. Beach has brought suit against John H. Beach for divorce. The petition has been taken from the files.

Officer Schlaudroff has filed an affidavit in Justice France's court against John DeVaux, a farmer living on the Maysville road, nine miles from the city, for cruelty.

Justice France has continued the preliminary examination of Hobbs, who is charged with rape, until Thursday.

F W Quackenbush State Manager for the U B and Mutual Aid Society of Pennsylvania

DEAR SIR—I desire to convey my gratitude and unbounded satisfaction, through you, to the U. B Mutual Aid Society of Pennsylvania for the prompt settlement of my claim of $1,000 in full, upon the life of my late husband, Michael Ryan, deceased

The courteous treatment and speedy payment of this loss, in this hour of my bereavement, assures me that entire confidence can be placed in the fidelity of the society to fulfill all its promises, and I cheerfully add my testimonial to its worth and usefulness, and unhesitatingly recommend it to all seeking insurance.

Again thanking you and the society, I am yours very sincerely,

MATILDA RYAN.

P. S—Mr Ryan's policy was dated April 13, 1895 He paid only two quarterly premiums.

I hereby return my heartfelt thanks to the doctors, especially to the professors, of the Medical college, and all who so kindly rendered assistance during my late affliction in the death of my husband.

MRS. FRANK MITCHEL.

A GRAND PAGEANT.

The Knights Templar Parade Eclipses Previous Efforts.

The Naked Bean Town Overcrowded With Masons From Every State and Territory.

BOSTON, Mass., Aug. 27.—Seven hundred and fifty thousand people saw the parade of over 25,000 Sir Knights Templar today, and with one accord pronounced it the grandest pageant ever witnessed in Boston.

People were everywhere; in the streets, on the sidewalks, on the roofs of buildings and street cars, and clinging to the tops of telegraph poles whenever the vigilance of the police and linemen was relaxed for a moment; in wagons and drays, filled with seats, in the side streets and on hundreds of grand stands, large and small, along the route.

The clear skies and sunshine of the past two days had given away to a partially clouded sky, but finally the sun broke through the clouds, vigorously endeavoring to drive the mists away.

Although a majority of the Sir Knights spent last night, until a late hour, entertaining friends or being entertained, they were astir early this morning.

Trains from every direction brought thousands of uniformed Templars and their friends to swell the host. At the depots the crowds were of almost suffocating density. From every state commanderies began to arrive at an early hour and thousands of spectators came with them. The streets near the depots echoed with the din of scores of bands and the tramp of arriving knights and their escorts. The railroad men were completely overwhelmed by the magnitude of the crowd.

Everywhere within a radius of twenty miles of the state house, the day is practically a holiday. Most of the factories in near-by cities are closed and the operatives helped to swell the crowds who watched the procession. The police appointments were well nigh perfect.

Shortly before the parade started, platoons of officers cleared every street through which the Sir Knights were to pass and roped them off, and until the last division had passed no traffic of any kind was allowed on those thoroughfares.

The lines of the parade were formed in thirteen divisions in a column of double sections. At 9 o'clock the commanderies of the first division began to gather on the south side of Commonwealth avenue, near Berkeley street, and at about the same hour the other divisions began to take up their positions in the avenue of the Bay district. There was the usual delay consequent to the formation of great processions, but all was in readiness shortly after 10 o'clock and by 10:30 the long line was in motion, the signal for the start being greeted by the cheers and salutes of 10,000 people that gathered near the start.

As the great body of knights moved down Commonwealth avenue the spectacle was an inspiring one. The music of 100 bands and the applause of the thousands of people filled the air. Gaily bedecked horses pranced at the head of each division, while the contrast of the dignified black cloth of the uniforms, of the waving of the rich plumes and the silver and gold emblems which are conspicuous in the Templar's uniform, combined to present a scene that was pleasing and impressive.

STARTLING REVELATION

The Trunk Which Hid Howard Pietzel's Body is Found in Irvington.

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind., Aug. 27.—Detectives Geier and Gary, of Philadelphia, today discovered at Irvington, a suburb of this city, a house in which H. H. Holmes lived three days last October. They found there portions of a trunk in which it is supposed Howard Pietzel's body was conveyed and are now digging in hopes of finding the boy's remains.

COUNTERFEITERS RAIDED.

Eight of a Gang of Fifteen Landed in Jail.

PERRY, Okla., Aug. 27.—Four deputy marshals made a raid on a counterfeiters' den in a cave in the Kaw country yesterday and captured eight of a gang of fifteen, who were at work making counterfeits. Officers have been on the outlook for the gang for six months. The men arrested are, Big Henry, Clark Cross, Old Man Cross, Joe Roberts, Charles Boyd, Shorty Berry and two others. The officers are in pursuit of the seven men who escaped.

WAS POSTED IN PARIS.

The Infernal Machine Which Injured M. Jodkowitz.

PARIS, Aug. 27.—The police have definitely ascertained that the letter containing the infernal machine, which exploded in the office of Baron Alphonse de Rothschild on Saturday afternoon, severely injuring his confidential clerk, M. Jodkowitz, was posted in this city.

LAWYERS MEET.

Over Three Hundred of Them Assemble at Detroit.

DETROIT, Aug. 27.—An intellectual looking assembly of 300 leading jurists and members of the bar was present in Y. M. C. A. hall at 10:30 o'clock this morning when President James C. Carter, of New York, called to order the eighteenth annual convention of the American Bar association. After thanking the Detroit representatives of the profession for the cordial reception tendered the visitors, the president read a short list of the most noted jurists present, who were invited to seats upon the platform. President Carter then proceeded with the reading of his address.

WOUNDED IN A DUEL.

George Morris and Jose Salsasar Settle a Dispute.

The Weapons Used Were Pistols and the American Fell at the First Shot.

GUADALAJARA, Mex., Aug. 27.—Geo. S. Morris, an American mining man, was shot and wounded in a duel at Amoca, a town west of here, by a Spaniard named Jose Salsasar. The two men had a quarrel over a business deal and the Spaniard issued the challenge to fight a duel. Morris accepted and seconds were chosen. The fight took place on the outskirts of the town and at the first shot Morris received a bullet in his breast. He was carried from the field. A strong effort has been made to keep the affair quiet, as the opposition of the authorities to dueling is very pronounced. No arrests have yet been made. Morris came to Mexico two years ago from Pennsylvania.

AN OHIO TRAGEDY.

Three Men Shot During the Course of a Riot.

WAPAKONETA, Ohio, Aug. 27.—3 P. M.—There has been a fearful fight here and the riotous proceedings are still going on. Three men have already been shot and others have been injured in other ways.

THE VICTIMS.

4 P. M.—The names of the victims are Josephus Tiffer, shot through the bowels; will die.

Albert Seifert, shot through the arm; not serious.

Oscar Voorhees, shot through the hand.

The men were employed on the water works trenches and yesterday morning they went on a strike and declared that no one should go to work until their demands were satisfied. Some of them went to work at noon today, but were driven out. The contractor ordered Lewis Vanskiver and another party to fill some trenches and cover some pipe in the Second ward.

They began work and a crowd of strikers congregated and commenced beating Vanskiver over the head with clubs and shovel handles, breaking the largest ones by force of the blows. After he had been struck several times he pulled a pistol and fired, with the above result.

THE BOWERS CASE.

The Police Board Will Render a Decision Tomorrow.

The board of safety was in session last night to conclude the examination in the case of Officer Bowers and witnesses were called and examined. The first witness was Mrs. Egg, at whose house it was charged that Officer Bowers had reached in through an open window in the side of the house and caught hold of Miss Lowry, who was sleeping on a lounge or cot just inside the window on the night of June 4, 1895. There were a number of other witnesses examined, but no evidence of a specially interesting character other than that which THE SENTINEL has already given was elicited. The only real evidence in the case is that of Miss Lowry and Officer Bowers, the one indicating the later's guilt and the other his innocence.

The police board completed its examination last evening, but they will not render any decision in the matter until tomorrow.

WOMAN MISSING.

Fears of Foul Play Entertained by Her Friends.

HOUGHTON, Mich., Aug. 27.—Mrs. Philip Schuermann, wife of the manager of the S. Schuermann Brewing company, left the residence of John Nelson, in West Houghton, at 9:30 o'clock last night to walk home, a distance of three and one-half miles. Since then absolutely no trace of her whereabouts has been found and foul play is feared. Searching parties are hunting for clews and the lake may be dragged.

TRAINMEN INJURED.

Engineer Shea and Fireman Larimore Are the Victims.

Patrick Shea, engineer, and Fireman Chas. Larimore were injured yesterday by jumping from their engine to avoid a collision, just west of the city.

Shea's ankle was sprained and he is now confined to his home. Larimore had his face badly cut.

STILL UNCERTAIN

Is the Political Situation in Pennsylvania.

Senator Quay is Positive His Faction is in the Lead, and His Enemies Are Equally Confident of Success.

HARRISBURG, Pa., Aug. 27.—The political situation here today appears to be just as uncertain as ever. Neither faction will give out positive figures, leaders contenting themselves with the statement that their faction is on top. At the anti-Quay headquarters David Martin and C. L. Magee possess the appearance of serene confidence which has characterized their every action during the past twenty-four hours. They say the fight is over and that Quay is badly whipped. At the Quay headquarters the information is just the opposite. Ex-Chairman Cooper, Congressman Robinson and Senator Quay himself appear just as confident as ever that they have enough delegates to control the convention. The present prospect is that there will be two sets of tickets and an inevitable clash of authority. Whether the clash will be carried to the extent of two conventions will probably be decided by the events of the day. The leaders of both factions held conferences this morning. Manager Markley, of the Harrisburg opera house, announces this afternoon that Chairman Gilkeson has bought off the dramatic company which was to hold forth on the stage tonight and the keys of the building are now in his possession and will be delivered to no one but Mr. Gilkeson. This appears to insure the anti-Quay people in their possession of the convention hall. The state committee held an adjourned meeting this forenoon, Chairman Gilkeson defending himself on the ground that the meeting had not been properly called. Temporary Chairman Cooper reported that there were seventy-five of the 121 members present, personally or by proxy. The report of the committee on credentials was favorable to the Quay contestants from Wyoming county and the First and Fifth wards of Philadelphia. No action was taken regarding the Northumberland county contest. The committee took a recess until 11 o'clock tonight.

YACHT RUN DOWN.

Robert W. Inman's Pleasure Craft Comes to Grief

And the Owner is Missing and is Thought to Have Lost His Life in the Water.

NEW YORK, Aug. 27.—Up to 10:30 o'clock this morning nothing had been heard from Robert W. Inman, jr., who was on board his yacht Adelaide last night when it was struck by the Iron Steamboat company's steamer Perseus off Norton's Point. It is quite possible, however, that he is safe and that, not realizing the anxiety which his absence occasions, he has neglected to send any message to his office or to his bachelor apartments. All the others who were on board the yacht Adelaide with Mr. Inman are accounted for.

GRAPHIC DESCRIPTION OF THE ACCIDENT.

Captain Jacobs, of the Adelaide, made a statement today regarding the collision. He said he was at the wheel when the Perseus struck the yacht. His boat was thrown broadside against the steamer and was rapidly nearing the port paddle wheel when he ran forward, caught the rail of the steamer, helped one woman aboard and the next instant found himself forced to board the steamer as the boats parted. He later returned to the yacht by the steamer's life boat and steered the Adelaide, which was not seriously damaged, to the quarters of the Atlantic Yacht club South Brooklyn. When the Adelaide reached the yacht club house she had aboard five persons, the captain, the steward and the boy, Lafayette Jacquet, of the crew, and Mr. Evans and Miss Norton. Mrs. Evans and Doran, one of the crew, were taken on board the Perseus. Neither the captain nor the steward observed Mr. Inman's movements after the collision. B. S. Clarke, who is associated with Mr. Inman in business, said that he felt great anxiety for Mr. Inman's safety. He thought it almost certain that if the missing yachtsman were in a position to do so, he would have communicated with his friends at once. Mr. Inman was a strong swimmer and might have made either shore of the narrows, but in a condition too exhausted to send word. Then some hope is rested upon the report that a passing sloop picked up some one from the yacht.

INDIAN TROUBLES

Break Out Anew in Pend d' Oreille District.

The Reds Claim the Territory as Their Reservation and Drive the Settlers From the Land.

SPOKANE, Wash., Aug. 27.—Trouble has again broke out between Kalispel Indians and settlers along the east ridge of the Pend d'Oreille river, in Idaho, over the disputed possession of what the Indians claim is their reservation, but which is in reality government land. A large delegation of white settlers came to this city today and stated that they were driven off from their farms by Indians, who threatened them with death if they dared to return. The red skins forcibly took possession of the homes and property of the whites and told the latter that such was their instructions from Indian Agent Budd. The settlers are preparing to go back armed and in force and drive the Indians out of the neighborhood. The Indians are ugly and the situation is deemed to be serious.

WEALTH TO POVERTY.

Remarkable Career of a Man in His Second Childhood.

Came to America From Servia Two Years Ago With $200,000, and is Now a Pauper.

PORTLAND, Ore., Aug. 27.—A Servian, traveling under the name of John Giboviéh, left for the east today, accompanied by a man who, he claims, is a cousin of the ex-king of Servia. The man is seventy-eight years old and has been a waiter in a Spokane restaurant the past four months. He came to America two years ago with $200,000, so the story goes, which he squandered in New York and San Francisco. In the latter place he was known as an Italian count and, it is said, moved in high society. Giboviéh says he had a commission to escort the man to his native country.

WILL BE EVICTED.

Settlers Receive Notice to Quit Their Lands.

The Order Issues From the War Department and It Requires 1,500 Persons of Their Homes.

PORT TOWNSEND, Wash., Aug. 27.—Consternation has been caused in this and adjoining counties by the appearance of an army lieutenant and a squad of men with instructions to all settlers on government reserves to vacate the same before September 15 or be removed by the troops. This move is the outcome of a recent order of the war department and it is conservatively estimated that 1,500 settlers will lose their homes. In early days when the settlement of Washington was beginning the government took occasion to set aside much valuable land on which it was intended to establish the Indians. These reservations on the part of the government exceeded the needs of the occasion and as it never made an attempt to take up the lands, many pioneers settled upon the tracts which, by intelligent cultivation, have been developed into the finest farming lands in the state. It is feared here that trouble will ensue should the government attempt to forcibly take from the settlers the homes which they have built by many years of toil. It was claimed by some that this action of the department is simply preliminary to the extensive and much needed fortification of Puget Sound.

GIVE UP THE FIGHT.

Harlem Races Declared Off and Stakes Withdrawn.

CHICAGO, Aug. 27.—All racing at Harlem has been declared off. The track officials, after a conference today, decided that the injunction issued against them last Saturday all further attempt at running the track impossible and all stakes were accordingly declared off. The injunction was obtained by the Civic Federation from Judge Gibbons and, while permitting racing, forbade gambling.

LOCAL LINES.

Mrs. William Zutermeister has returned from Richmond, where she was visiting friends a few days.

Miss Lotta Cramer, of West DeWald street, has left for Toledo to be the guest of relatives for a week.

Jerry Bayel, who was the guest of Miss Jennie Haverly over Sunday returned to his home at Crestline, Ohio, at noon today.

B. Ellert and son, Ben, are visiting at Detroit and Windsor, Canada. Mr. Ellert writes that it reminds him of Paris—everything is "parlez vous Francais."

Frank Antenis has returned from a trip to Niagara Falls, Buffalo, Detroit and Toledo. Frank wrote a number of interesting letters home while en route.

Deputy Sheriff Al. Melching this afternoon left for Edgerton, to arrest one Elmer Little, charged with stealing twenty bales of hay from a Wabash railway car.

The funeral of the late Mrs. Catharine Brooks will occur from the residence of her son, H. C. Brooks, 250 West DeWald street, tomorrow afternoon, at 2:30, Rev. J. S. Ainslie will officiate.

Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Grimme today are celebrating the golden anniversary of their marriage. A large number of friends and relatives from a distance are here participating in the festivities.

On the evening of September 2 the New Haven Stars will give a Labor Day ball at Stock's opera house, New Haven. The reception committee is Bert M. Gorrell, Lou Krock and Herman Sievers. The floor managers are Charles A. Bolce and S. A. Blaising.

Alvin Lackey, aged twenty-four years, a farm hand employed on the farm of Preston Chapman, in Pleasant township, died this morning from measles. The body will be brought to the home of his father, Ephriam Lackey, 28 Savilla avenue, from which place the funeral will be held.

Last evening a number of friends gathered at the home of Miss Birdie Zollars to congratulate her on the anniversary of her birth. At the hour of ten a quartet surrounded her. The singing was enjoyed and a pleasant time was had by all. She was also remembered by her friends with many gifts.

CREMATION OF THE DEAD

The Views of Dr. C. B. Stemen and Rev. J. S. Ainslie

On This Interesting Question—Both of Them Speak in Strong Terms Against It.

Dr. C. B. Stemen, the dean of the Fort Wayne Medical college and one of the prominent physicians of this city, contributes for THE SENTINEL the following interesting article on the cremation of the dead, and as it is a subject which is now coming up for discussion, we give it publication, feeling confident it will interest a large number of our readers. In this connection THE SENTINEL also gives a synopsis of the sermon delivered on Sunday evening by Rev. James S. Ainslie, the pastor of the Congregational church of this city, on the same subject. Both of the gentlemen take strong grounds against the incineration of the dead. The article of Dr. Stemen is as follows:

At the time that the great American surgeon, Prof. S. D. Gross, requested that his body should be cremated and which was accordingly done, there were a number of societies organized for the purpose of establishing crematories in different parts of this country, but up to the present time they have not been liberally patronized. Cremation has been practiced from the earliest times and among many nations. It was practiced by some of the western people and is now in India and some other countries of Asia and by a few tribes of North American Indians as well as by a very small per cent in this country. As stated before, the greatest revival of this subject in this country was after the death of the distinguished surgeon, Prof. S. D. Gross. He was favorably and extensively known both in this country and, in fact, among many nations as the greatest of American surgeons, and as he selected this mode of disposing of his body, many of his admirers made similar requests; but up to the present but few have followed his example. The crematories then established have had but few bodies to cremate.

Recently this subject has again been revived and an effort made to have other crematories established.

In this city the Allen county medical society passed resolutions recommending cremation as the best method of disposing of our dead. We were not present at this meeting or their would have been one vote cast against the resolution.

The grounds on which its adoption is urged are those of economy, sanitation and the horror of the slow process of decomposition in the earth. There are in our opinion some serious objections to be urged against cremation. We would not object on the grounds of the Christian religion. Yet we learn from history that it was given up in Europe as Christianity spread and disappeared in Rome during the fourth century. There is no record that it has ever been customarily employed by any Christian nation. The burial of the dead is in accordance with the teachings of the Bible. And we do not believe that any of the advocates of cremation would want to live in any community where the Bible was not read or believed and the best educated men living any where are the believers in the word of God and the more closely any people live in obedience to its teachings the happier and more prosperous they are.

As stated before we do not oppose cremation on this ground, for the God we worship can hold all the atoms of matter in the grasp of his omnipotence and it matters not whether the body be rapidly decomposed by fire or the slower process of decomposition in the earth. The great "I Am" will watch that dust or ashes and whatever portion or particle (if any) is necessary to constitute identity will be brought forth.

But there are other grounds on which we oppose cremation. The one most important objection is that it would destroy the evidence of foul play and many murders would be committed by the giving of deadly poisons, that now probably end only in suits for divorce, etc. This objection is a serious one, which in our opinion will prevent it from ever becoming generally adopted.

We know of quite a number of murders committed in this and other states where no suspicion was aroused at the time of death and in some cases not for some time after the body had been buried, when one circumstance after another aroused the suspicion of friends and investigations resulted in finding that a murder had been committed by the administration of a deadly poison. The protection of human life demands that the bodies be buried and not incinerated, as this would destroy all evidence of foul play.

In regard to economy there is no argument that we have yet seen that makes it any more economical than that of burial.

As to cremation being better in a sanitary point of view, we have never seen any scientific arguments that prove this to be true. The earth is the best disinfectant that we have any knowledge of and, while heat such as is necessary to incinerate the body certainly will destroy all germs, so with the earth, we believe that it as effectually destroys all the diseased germs.

Some may ask about typhoid fever germs—they live in water. Yes, but not in the earth. We challenge any one to show us a single case of infection that can be traced to our cemeteries. It cannot be done. Consequently this argument in favor of cremation fails. But the one great objection against cremation is the fact of covering up crime by destroying all evidence that could convict the guilty parties.

C. B. STEMEN.

THE SERMON OF REV. AINSLIE.

THE SENTINEL would be glad to give the sermon in full of Rev. Ainslie, for it was an able effort, and preached to a large audience, but the crowded condition of our columns necessitates the giving only of a synopsis of the discourse, which is as follows:

"By faith Joseph, when he died, made mention of the departing of the children of Israel, and gave commandment concerning his bones."

This is a remarkable record, said the speaker, of a dying statesman's anxiety concerning his bones. Egypt was the world's capital and the very center of the world's civilization. Joseph was the real ruler of the realm, though he was second to the king.

But in his dying hour he cares for none of these things. His last message was: "Swear to me that you will carry my bones back to Palestine, to the sepulcher of my fathers, where Abraham, Isaac and Jacob rest. Let me slumber with them."

Why should Joseph give this special message concerning his burial? Why should we, as Christian people, have any thought about the final disposition of our bodies, after death?

In the first place, we should regard the body as sacred, because we are fearfully and wonderfully made. Scholars tell us that matter has fulfilled its mission now that the body stands erect, throbbing with a living brain, and testing in a living heart. Man's body is the gem and crown of God's physical creation. Therefore, it should be treated with care in life, and with honor in death.

Secondly, The body is sacred, because it is the instrument of the soul. The body is the temple in which I live, the instrument through which I do all my work in this world. The soul is a city, and the five senses are gateways through which pass all earth's sights and sounds. Through the ear we have heard the messages of love, and a thousand pleasant notes. How do hand and vision protect us in danger! What joy we have had in voice! It carries warning and alarm. Thus the body serves the soul, and becomes sacred by service.

3. Then the body is sacred by reason of its associations. It is a law of our being that objects and places connected with life's deep joys and sorrows become themselves sacred through these associations. The bird lines its nest with down from its own bosom. Thus, the heart, going forward in life, leaves behind some treasure, and perfumes its path. Memory hangs on the tree the whispered confession made beneath its branches. No palace so memorable as the little house where you were reared. Noteworthy forever the cottage where Shakespeare dwelt. But no building ever showed such handiwork as the temple built by divine skill. God hath made the soul's house fair to look upon. Death may close the doors, darken its windows, and pull down its pillars; still, its very ruins are precious, to be guarded with jealous care.

But the objector says: "Should a man care for the old coat or worn-out shoe? And what more is the body after death?"

But if it is your mother's? Do you remember her love for you, her care, her nursing you in sickness, her prayers, and tears in your behalf? And when she dies is that body, which has been identified with these ministries, to be treated as nothing, and cast into the furnace?

4. Still, further, this feeling of respect for the body also has a powerful reflex influence on our treatment of the poor. If a poor man, dying, is treated according to his value in society, there is suggested that most dismal of Hood's poems:

"Rattle his bones
Over the stones;
It's only a pauper
Whom nobody owns."

But if every poorest man is a child of God, and destined to immortality, then his body cannot be treated with indignity without a shock to our humane feelings.

5. I mention one more reason why we should hold our bodies in honor in life, and for an honorable burial in death; namely, the sense of identity is largely dependent upon it. The body is a registering machine. Every thought of the brain, every aspiration of the soul is registered on our faces. The base and vulgar man carries the sign of his depravity in his countenance. The saint is good looking. And while the self-same body is not raised out of the grave, yet the spiritual body is like unto it.

All these considerations will oppose a lasting resistance to the paganism of burning the dead, now sought to be introduced. It is against nature and revolting to all the finer sensibilities of the heart. It is the liberty of all who wish for incineration to have it. It is urged for sanitary reasons and as a matter of convenience. But it will never become popular, for all the associations of our English-speaking and of our German-speaking populations are violated by the attempt to supersede our whole literature, by reducing our friends at once to ashes, and putting them in urns, like labeled sweetments on our shelves!

Could anyone sing at the mouth of the furnace, that grandest lyric of death in the English Language? "Unveil thy bosom, faithful tomb," etc.

So let us live that this body shall itself be a cluster of associations and sanctities, and dying, as to the outward and physical life, we shall leave a memory, a faith, clustering affection, spiritual elements and a glorious reappearing when Christ shall come to call us home.

TWELFTH ANNIVERSARY.

The Reformed Orphan's Home Will Celebrate It

At the Beautiful Grounds of the Institution on Sept. 4—The Program for the Occasion.

The Reformed Orphans' home will celebrate its twelfth anniversary on September 4 at the beautiful grounds of the institution, two miles east of the city. Dinner and supper will be served in the basement of the building to all who may desire it. The ladies of the different Reformed churches of the city have united, and together with the executive committee of the board of trustees, are completing the arrangements for a successful celebration. The friends of the orphanage are all cordially invited to attend. Persons going to the anniversary will take the Spy Run electric cars and go out past the School for Feeble Minded Children to the end of the line, where wagons will be waiting to convey passengers to the home.

In the afternoon the usual anniversary services will be held in the grove. The English address will be delivered by Rev. A. K. Zartman, of Fort Wayne; and the German address by Rev. Ferdinand G. Zesch, Ph. D., of Cincinnati, with introductory remarks by the president of the board, Rev. J. Bachman, D. D., also of Cincinnati. The children of the home will furnish some singing, and a band has been engaged to assist in the entertainment. The board of trustees will hold a meeting at the home at 8 o'clock this evening.

POLICE COURT.

Case Which Came Before Mayor Oakley This Morning.

But two prisoners lined up before his honor in police court this morning. They were Joe Miller and Frank Joffrie, colored lads, who yesterday were begging in the west end of the city. During the noon hour they called at the home of Officer Flickinger, on West Main street, and that gentleman very promptly gathered them in out of the wet. In lieu of a fine of $11.50 they decided to become guests of Sheriff Clausmeier.

Last evening Officer Hines arrested John Stoehr, a Calhoun street saloonkeeper, for drunkenness. This morning his bail of $10.50 was forfeited.

Officers Dixon and Knock gathered in Frank Barry and Harry Adams for drunkenness last evening. The men are from St. Louis. Barry is a restaurant dish washer and Adams, who has a wooden leg, is accompanying him in his travels. The men were creating a disturbance near the corner of Harrison and Main streets when arrested. Their cases will come up before the mayor this afternoon, at which time the cases against a number of saloon-keepers for violation of the Nicholson law will be heard.

Superintendent of Police Liggett, always on the alert for cell-doors, has for some time thought that gambling has been going on in a certain saloon, and today after a little detective work proved the matter to his entire satisfaction. Mr. Liggett states that if the business is not discontinued at once the promoters of the scheme will get it where the bottle got the cork.

WINONA ASSEMBLY.

The Evangelistic Meetings Held by J. Wilbur Chapman.

The Winona Assembly and Summer School at Eagle Lake, entered upon the closing week yesterday. From now on the evangelistic meetings, commenced with such a flow of enthusiasm on Sunday in the Auditorium under the auspices of the noted evangelist, J. Wilbur Chapman, will "hold the boards." At 11 o'clock on Sunday Mr. Chapman preached a powerful sermon to a large audience. In the afternoon at 3 o'clock Mr. Sunday conducted the service and his exceedingly able and practical discourse appealed to the hearts and minds of all present. Sunday evening the Winona Assembly united with the churches of Warsaw in a union meeting at the opera house, addressed by Mr. Chapman. The crowd was so great that an overflow meeting was necessary and was addressed by Mr. Sunday at the M. E. church. Each day three special services will be held in the Assembly Auditorium, conducted by Mr. Chapman, viz: at 11 a. m., 3:30 and 7:30 p. m. The celebrated Gospel singers, Professor and Mrs. Lowe, will add to the enjoyment of each occasion by their sweet singing, which has so delighted multitudes throughout the length and breadth of the land.

OUR CENTENNIAL.

The Directors Hold an Important Business Meeting.

At the meeting of the board of directors of the centennial celebration last evening at the office of Randall & Doughman, it was decided to change the date of the celebration from the 5th to the 15th of October, to continue four days. Committees were appointed to take charge of the special features of the centennial. The report of the soliciting committees are more than satisfactory and demonstrates the great interest which is being taken in the celebration by the citizens. The directors are fitting up room No. 7 in the Arcade as headquarters and will occupy it in a day or two.

Miss Mary Rogers, of East Jefferson street, is on the sick list.

SHOT IN THE BACK.

Ernest Spitler Seriously Wounded While Hunting.

He is Now at the St. Joseph Hospital, and His Recovery is Doubtful—Other Casualties.

As a result of the careless handling of a gun, Ernest Spitler, a young painter, aged about eighteen years, is lying at the point of death at the St. Joseph hospital.

This morning, about 9 o'clock, Spitler accompanied by two other lads, Louis Figel and Edward Jones, aged thirteen and seventeen years respectively, went out a short distance beyond Cenlliver's to shoot birds. There were two guns, one a shotgun, the other a twenty-two calibre target rifle, in the party, both the property of young Jones.

The target rifle was in the hands of Figel, the youngest boy in the party, and in attempting to lower the hammer the gun was discharged, the ball entering Spitler's back and penetrating the liver. At the time Spitler was not more than two or three feet from the muzzle of the weapon. After the shooting Spitler walked some distance until meeting a carriage, the driver of which was induced to convey the wounded lad to his home, No. 56 Wells street, from which place the patrol wagon was summoned to take the boy to the hospital, where Dr. W. H. Myers is attending him.

While at work in the new Lau block yesterday afternoon, Frank Hessil, a stonemason, was struck on the head by a falling beam and knocked senseless. The wounded man was taken to his home, on Miner street, where Dr. Van Buskirk sewed up the wound.

Last evening the little daughter of Peter Wysong, the painter, fell while playing and fractured the bones of the right arm below the elbow. Dr. Porter was called and reduced the fracture.

The twelve-year-old daughter of August Steepe, of Smith street, met with a painful accident Sunday evening. While playing with a number of small friends, she was thrown to the ground, and sustained a fracture of the right hip. Dr. Duemling was summoned and rendered the necessary treatment.

THREE MORE DIVORCES!

Jacobs vs. Jacobs, Rogers vs. Rogers.

Cruelty and Drunkenness in the Charge in One Case, and Abandonment in the Other.

David Jacobs has commenced proceedings in the circuit court, through his attorney, J. R. Bittinger, asking that he may be given a divorce from his wife, Anna Jacobs.

In his petition he charges that the defendant has been guilty of cruel and inhuman conduct and was also guilty of drunkenness. He says that she threatened at different times to take his life and that she was in the habit of keeping whisky in the house for her own use, and at one time, he alleges in his petition, she was dead drunk.

The parties were married on the 14th of January, 1892.

The superior court also records a divorce case, in which Dora Rogers asks for a separation from her husband Leslie Rogers. Her attorneys are John Shaffer and Breen & Morris.

The petition states that the parties were married in November, 1885, and lived together until December, 1889, when the defendant abandoned the plaintiff without cause. The plaintiff asks for a divorce, the restoration of her maiden name, Dora Shaffer, and the custody of the two children born to them.

Jennie M. Beach has brought suit against John H. Beach for divorce. The petition has been taken from the files.

Officer Schlaudroff has filed an affidavit in Justice France's court against John DeVaux, a farmer living on the Maysville road, nine miles from the city, for cruelty.

Justice France has continued the preliminary examination of Hobbs, who is charged with rape, until Thursday.

Mrs. James Hughes and son, Riley, returned this afternoon from a two weeks' visit with relatives at Warsaw and Pierceton.

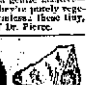

NEVER TOO LATE TO MEND

—the bad habits and early vices of young men and their disastrous consequences. Young men and old men, those who suffer from nervous debility and exhaustion, the wasting away of the vital strength and power from hidden drains or intemperate habits can readily find relief for body and mind by writing the World's Dispensary Medical Association, of Buffalo, N. Y. They employ a full staff of physicians and Specialists who treat at a distance by correspondence or at the Invalids' Hotel and Surgical Institute of Buffalo, all this class of diseases. Those who suffer from low spirits, irritable temper, a "broken-down" nervous system, and such distressing symptoms as backache, dizziness, shooting pains in head or chest and indigestion, sexual excesses or abuses, all the result of exhausting diseases or drains upon the system,—will find a permanent cure after taking the special prescriptions sent them from the Invalids' Hotel and Surgical Institute. This association of medical men have prepared a book written in plain but chaste language, treating of the nature, symptoms and curability, by home treatment, of such diseases. The World's Dispensary Medical Association, Proprietors of the Invalids' Hotel and Surgical Institute, Buffalo, N. Y., will, on receipt of this notice, with 10 cents (in stamps for postage) mail, sealed in plain envelope, a copy of this useful book. It should be read by every young man, parent and guardian in the land.

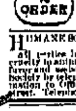

The Key to the Situation —if you suffer from Sick or Bilious Headache, Constipation, Indigestion, Bilious Attacks, or any derangement of the stomach, liver and bowels—is Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets. Mildly and gently, but thoroughly and effectively, they cleanse, renovate and regulate the entire system. One little "Pellet" for a gentle laxative—three for a cathartic. They're purely vegetable and perfectly harmless: these tiny, sugar-coated granules of Dr. Pierce.

The Evening Sentinel.

BY E. A. K. HACKETT.

TUESDAY, AUG. 27, 1895

The postal receipts for July, 1895, were 17 per cent. larger than for July, 1894. Another convincing proof that prosperity has returned with her smiles and manifold blessings.

The article on "The Cremation of the Dead," written by Dr. C. B. Stemen and published in today's Sentinel will be found interesting. He takes strong grounds against such a disposition of the body after death.

Fort Wayne will have at the coming races of the Driving Park association one of the fastest fast-steppers of the country—Robert J. It may be that then the people attending will see the two minute record made.

The people of the surrounding towns and also those living in the country are taking a great interest in the centennial celebration of the city's anniversary and the event will undoubtedly be the means of bringing to Fort Wayne thousands of visitors.

The democratic city convention of Indianapolis will be held Thursday. Governor Matthews will preside. There are five candidates for mayor, but it is the expectation that Thomas Taggart will be nominated on the first ballot and that Evans Wollen will be named for police judge.

The Sentinel is glad to see the movement for the building of electric roads from Fort Wayne to the different towns in this vicinity. It means, if these roads are constructed and put in operation, that the trade of a wide scope of country will be brought to this city and the benefitting of every merchant and manufacturer in our midst.

The first evidence of new civilization in Corea comes to this country in the shape of an order for postage stamps, and they are now being manufactured in large quantities in Washington. They are designed for the carrying of domestic mail only, and will open up many new routes throughout the little kingdom, improving and enlarging the service in every department.

The new woman is reaching upward. Miss Anna S. Peck, of Providence, R. I., is a graduate of Michigan university, an authority on archaeology, has been a professor of Latin at Smith college, and is a handsome woman of twenty-eight. With all this she is a mountain-climber, and she is the third woman to scale the dangerous peak of the Matterhorn, which feat she accomplished this summer.

The meeting of the city council this evening, which is the first session since their summer adjournment, will be one of considerable interest and importance as estimates will be submitted by the administration for the revenues which will be necessary to carry on the city government for the next twelve months. A message from the mayor giving his views on this subject will be read. The Sentinel in its issue tomorrow, will give an account of the proceedings of the council together with the views of the mayor as embodied in his message.

In a speech delivered before a populist gathering, at Chicago, Coxey declared that he would be the next Governor of Ohio, and probably the populist candidate for the presidency next year. Coxey is now as near to either of these offices as he will ever get.

In its issue yesterday The Sentinel recorded two lynchings—one at Springfield, Ky., and the other at Yerka, Col. Mob law cannot be too severely condemned. It is never justifiable, because an excited body of men, acting on the impulse of the moment and their judgments impaired by passion, are too liable to be mistaken. Many an innocent man has suffered death as a result of lynch law.

The Sentinel today prints a synopsis of the sermon delivered last Sunday evening by Rev. J. S. Ainslie, of this city, on the question of cremation of the dead. It will be found interesting and we invite the attention of our readers to it. Rev. Ainslie is one of our ablest city pastors and his arguments against this manner of disposing of the dead are the sentiment of the great mass of the Christian ministry.

Announcement is made that Lafayette is to have a new daily paper, to begin its existence on Labor day. It is to be called the Lafayette Tribune. It will be independent in politics, a morning issue, and edited by Thomas E. Scantlin, formerly of the Courier. Lafayette already has three daily papers—the Courier and Call, evening, and the Journal, morning. The evening papers are both republican in politics, while the Journal is democratic.

The pulse of the country is told by the records of the ship canal at the Sault Ste. Marie, through which passes the immense commerce of Lake Superior. The business of the canal for July, 1895, was 187,000 tons greater than for July, 1894. The total for July this year was 2,477,000 tons, which is much greater than was ever known before, notwithstanding the fact that another canal has been built on the Canadian side which gets its share of the traffic.

The estimated sales of commercial fertilizers in Indiana during the year 1894 amounted to 35,000 tons, a decrease of 3,000 tons from the estimated sales 1893. This 35,000 tons of fertilizer consisted of 10,900 tons of bone, raw and steamed; 15,600 tons of "complete" fertilizer, that is, fertilizer containing nitrogen, phosphoric acid and potash; 4,200 tons, of ammoniated phosphates, 1,000 tons of phosphate and potash, and 3,300 tons of acid phosphate. The amount of plant food contained in the above includes 5,589 tons of phosphoric acid, of which 697 tons were in the insoluble form in acidulated goods; 777 tons of nitrogen and 407 tons of actual potash.

THE THIRTIETH INDIANA.

Their Reunion Held in This City Next Thursday.

The twelfth annual reunion of the Thirtieth Indiana Veteran union will be held in this city next Thursday. The officers of the union are, Capt. J. B. White, of Fort Wayne, president; N. N. Boydston, vice president; J. N. Ohlwine, Cromwell, Ind., secretary and treasurer. As appropriate to this annual meeting of the Thirtieth Indiana, Dr. J. W. Younge sends The Sentinel the following lines written by himself, which he has dedicated to Capt. J. B. White, for publication, which, he says, are a parody on those written by Secretary Ohlwine, of the regiment, and published in the Gazette of last Sunday:

Come, all you boys of '61,
Who were fond of fighting and of fun,
Who made the Johnnie Rebels run.
From Fort Wayne, Indiana.

Come, all you boys of '62,
Who love the red, the white and blue,
We'll show you now what we can do
At Fort Wayne, Indiana.

Come, all you boys of '63,
And Captain White will surely see
You are filled full of beans and glee
At Fort Wayne, Indiana.

Come, all you boys of '64,
Who loved to hear the cannons roar,
And made the rebels feel mighty sore,
From Fort Wayne, Indiana.

Come, all you boys of '65,
I mean all of you that are alive,
With your sweethearts and your wives,
For Fort Wayne, Indiana.

Come, all you boys from east and west,
We'll try and do our level best
To give you food you can digest
At Fort Wayne, Indiana.

On Aug. 29, 1895.

IMPROVEMENTS.

The Board of Public Works Decide on Several Last Evening.

The board of public works met yesterday in regular session, Mr. Hattersley being absent. The assessment roll for the construction of a sidewalk on the south side of Taber street, from Calhoun to Clinton, was approved. The engineer was instructed to prepare plans for the grading of the alley between Calhoun and Harrison streets, from Allen street to Creighton avenue. The improvement is in accordance with a petition which was received from a number of property owners of that part of town.

A communication was received from Captain Borgman, of the police force, regarding a number of electric lights in certain portions of the city and South Wayne, which failed to throw their light on several nights.

The board instructed the clerk to notify the natural gas company to repair Wells street at a point where it had been left in a bad condition after being torn up for the purpose of making an extension of pipes. The clerk was also instructed to notify the gas company to remove obstructions on West Wayne street, where work has been in progress.

The board granted the application for a sewer builder's license of Philip Wyss, and after allowing a few bills adjourned.

Mr. Willis, of the Dixon Crematory company, was present, and reported that the work of construction on the new building was progressing satisfactorily.

A PLEASANT SUMMER SHOWER

ALL THOMPSON'S FAULT

He Could Have Prevented the Colorado Bull Fights

Had He Remained at His Post of Duty at the Critical Moment—So Says the Governor.

Denver, Col., Aug. 27.—Hugh R. Steele, mayor of Cripple Creek, says the bull fights could have been prevented had Secretary Thompson, of the Humane society, been on the ground attending to his duty. "In fact," said he, "there was a strong sentiment against the show and had a determined effort been made, plenty of people could have been found who would have backed up an officer of the Humane society."

Governor McIntyre has written to the officers of the national society, advising the removal of its local agent, G. E. Thompson, secretary of the Colorado Humane society, on the ground of incompetency. The governor says that Thompson could have prevented the bull fight at Gillette if he had remained at the ring side and ordered the arrest of the fighters every time they entered the arena. He went to Gillette the day before the fighting was to begin and hurried back to Denver to ask the governor to call out the militia, which under the circumstances he could not do.

BIG FIELDS

At Both Fleetwood Park and Galesburg Track.

New York, Aug. 27.—A crowd estimated all the way from 3,000 to 4,000 gathered at the Fleetwood track yesterday afternoon for the opening day of the grand circuit trotting meeting. A slight accident occurred in the third heat of the first race, and there were a couple of rattling finishes between Benton Wilkes and Catherine Leyburn in the third race.

By way of giving a taste of what is to come Joe Patchen, John R Gentry and Robert J., the three pacing cracks that are to come together Thursday, were brought out and walked up and down the track, to the great delight of the crowd. There were big fields entered in all the three races on the card today, but for the most part things went off rather listlessly. There was comparatively little betting, and what there was was kept strictly within the regulations.

Summaries:

2:30 trot; purse, $3,000—Prince Purdy, 3, 3, 1, 1, 1; Anna Mace, 6, 6, 2, 2, 6. Nomad, Rosetta Sosp, King Albert, Burlingame, Bayreuth, Nickey, Operetta, Van Zant, Charity, El Rami also started. Time—2:14¼, 2:15¼, 2:15¼, 2:15¼, 2:15¼.

2:10 pace; purse, $2,000—Moonstone, first; Vitello, second; Henry F., third. Fred K., Paul, B. B., Sterling, Alcyo, Weed Wilkes, Kitty B., Wirligig also started. Time—2:09½, 2:09, 2:10¼.

2:17 class trot; purse, $2,000; unfinished—Benton Wilkes, 7, 1, 1; Catherine Leyburn, 1, 2, 2; Scranton Belle 2, 4, 5; Minnie Wilkes, Ora, Double Cross, Jacksonian, Kitty R., Orangelander, Brusie, Maumefato, El Robinson, Del Mar also started. Time—2:14, 2:12, 2:14.

Galesburg, Ill., Aug. 27.—On account of the hard rain yesterday the first day's races over the Williams track were postponed until this morning, when the horses will be called at 8:30 o'clock, and ten races will be concluded during the day, the largest number ever attempted by any association. The purses will amount to $14,000. The city is fast filling up with horsemen, so that the races tomorrow are certain to be largely attended.

SANDBAGGED AND ROBBED.

Wealthy Man in Crawfordsville, Ind., Comes to Grief.

Crawfordsville, Ind., Aug. 27.—There was a case of sandbagging on a Crawfordsville side street yesterday, the victim being James Deran, aged nearly eighty years. For over twenty years Deran has clad himself in an old snuff colored suit, and it was generally known that he kept large sums of gold and greenbacks sewed up in and concealed about his tatters. He was waylaid from the rear, clubbed insensible and dragged into an alley, where his assailants secured one wad of $727 in greenbacks, but overlooked other large amounts in their haste. Bloodhounds were brought into service, but on account of inexperience and a dry scent they were only able to trace the robbers to the spot where the booty was divided.

PRISONERS' PLOT TO ESCAPE.

Sheriff Harvey Discovers the Scheme and Thwarts its Consummation.

Knox, Ind., Aug. 27.—By the fortunate discovery of their plans yesterday four prisoners confined in the county jail were prevented from escaping. The men are Harry Hogan, awaiting trial for stealing a team of horses at North Judson a month ago; Andrew Hatfield, charged with rape, and John Murray and William Bensman, charged with minor offenses. The latter three are from Winamac, transferred because of the bad sanitary condition of the jail there.

For several days Sheriff Harvey has been satisfied they were planning an escape and has watched them closely. Yesterday he made a search of the cells and corridors, discovering that the prisoners had a blade taken from a pocketknife, a short iron bar partly shaped into a key, a bolt four inches long and the steel shank taken from one of their shoes. Hogan weakened under examination and, on being promised protection from the other prisoners, confessed that they had a key almost completed on one end of the iron bar, but broke it. They meant to unlock the corridor door when given the liberty of the corridor through the day, which was the only thing between them and freedom. They will be confined in their cells and carefully watched until court sits in October.

Cheap Telephone Service.

Cleveland, Ohio, Aug. 27.—Colonel William P. Fogg, of New York, is in the city as the representative of a wealthy New York syndicate organizing a new telephone company to compete with the Bell company. The new organization will be known as the Subscribers' Automatic Telephone company of Cleveland, and will be capitalized at $1,000,000, to be divided into shares of $50. Many local capitalists will also be interested in the company. The New York capitalists are those interested in the Mutual Automatic company, recently organized. It is proposed to secure 10,000 subscribers for the new exchange, which, it is promised, will be in operation within six months. The rates, as compared with those now charged by the Bell company, will be very low.

FOUR MEN KILLED.

Feud of Long Standing Comes to a Climax.

The Boyds and the Thomases Arm Themselves With Rifles and Wade In.

Bunson, Tenn., Aug. 27.—A bloody war between two factions resulting from a long standing feud has been fought in the Cumberland mountains, seventy-five miles north of here on the Virginia and Kentucky lines. A number of Boyd relatives and Thomas relatives, with Winchesters, met at an illicit distillery where the battle began. Four men, John Boyd, Will Cox, Jack Thomas and Floyd Thomas are dead and several are wounded.

MATT. W. RANSOM.

New Commission Issued to the Minister to Mexico.

Washington, Aug. 27.—The white house mail this morning bore the commission of Matt. W. Ransom to be United States minister to Mexico. The commission was dated August 24th. This removes a legal complication by which Minister Ransom, after several months' service at his post at the City of Mexico, was declared ineligible to fill the office to which he had been appointed prior to the expiration of his term as United States senator. It was held by the treasury accounting officers that he fell within the constitutional inhibition against the appointment of congressmen to offices created, or whose emoluments had been increased during their service in congress. It has been generally understood that Mr. Ransom would be promptly reappointed and the slight delay which has occurred presumably has been for the purpose of definitely ascertaining that there were no more legal or other obstacles in the way of renaming Mr. Ransom to the Mexican mission. The minister was in Washington a few days ago, but is now in North Carolina recuperating from an attack of illness due, in part, to the climate of the City of Mexico.

SUSPECTED OF TRAIN ROBBERY.

Fred Geiser and His Companions Being Trailed by Officers.

Grand Rapids, Mich., Aug. 27.—Fred Geiser, living near Fennville, is believed to be at the bottom of the recent train robbery, and the officers are hot on his trail. He arrived in Fennville a few months ago and lived with Amasa Logan, one mile east of the scene of the robbery.

Last Tuesday a farmer named Mann ferried three men across the Kalamazoo river, and they were met by Geiser, who, however, pretended that he did not know them. The four men were seen going together to Logan's house. Logan's boy returned home at 11 o'clock the night of the robbery and, though Geiser went to bed early, he was found up and dressed and nervous. The next day the three men were ferried across the river again and disappeared.

They answer the description of three of the train robbers. Geiser disappeared, but the officers are confident they have him covered and that they will capture him. In the Logan home was found a counterfeiting outfit and the federal authorities will probably take a hand in the case.

Shumakers & Co.'s large produce packing house at Bluffton was almost totally destroyed by fire yesterday afternoon. The building was a three story frame structure and the loss amounts to about $4,000, partially covered by insurance.

Mr. and Mrs. McGuffegan, of Muncie, Ind., are the guests of Mr. and Mrs. W. Sweet, of 92 Wagner street.

FOR RENT.

About the 5th of September "The Sentinel" will move into its new building on West Wayne street, and the building now occupied by "The Sentinel" will be for rent, and will be remodeled to suit the tenant. It is situated in an excellent business location, and any person desiring a store room on Calhoun street would do well to call at "The Sentinel" counting room. tf

A REMARKABLE CURE.

A CASE OF PILES OF EIGHTEEN YEARS STANDING.

Cured by the Pyramid Pile Cure.

There are plenty of pile cures which give relief and sometimes cure a mild case of piles, but there is only one which can be depended upon with certainty to cure obstinate long standing cases, and that is the Pyramid Pile Cure.

Endorsements and testimonials are received daily from men and women whose integrity and reliability are above question and in this connection a letter received from the Rev. Jas. H. Wesbrook, of Bowne, Mich., may be of interest to piles sufferers who have sought in vain for a cure. He says:

I have used the Pyramid Pile Cure and I know that it is all that is claimed for it. I had been troubled with piles more or less for about eighteen years and I had tried other remedies, but the piles grew worse until about ten months ago I used the Pyramid Pile Cure. It gave almost instant relief and I have been free from piles ever since. Rev. Jas. H. Wesbrook.

The remedy seems to act equally well in every form of piles, blind, bleeding, protruding or itching. It stops all pain almost immediately, allays irritation and removes constipation, and anyone who has suffered the annoyance and pain of a rectal trouble will appreciate the excellent results which invariably follow the first application of the Pyramid.

The Pyramid Pile Cure is prepared by the Pyramid Drug Co. of Albion, Mich., and for sale by druggists everywhere.

Two sizes, 50 Cents and $1. Sold by all druggists.

THE LAW AND THE WHEEL.

Judge Gunster Says a Bicycle Has the Same Rights as Other Vehicles.

Judge Gunster of Lackawanna county has defined in an elaborate opinion the legal status of the bicycle in Pennsylvania. This opinion establishes the fact that the bicycle is a vehicle and has the same right on the highway as other vehicles. Its proper place is upon the street or driveway and not on the sidewalk. If a bicycle traveler has occasion to stop on the way he may leave his vehicle for a reasonable length of time on the side of the highway or street placed in a proper manner so as not unduly to interfere with the rights of others while he is calling at the residence or place of business of an abutting owner or occupant, and the person who negligently injures a vehicle so left is liable for the full amount of the damages caused by his negligence.

This is rational law, and when understood by the drivers of horses will relieve bicycle riders of much annoyance. The average driver considers the bicyclist as an intruder and a nuisance, having no rights to the road and no title to consideration. Many of them, so far from trying to avoid collision with a bicycle resting by the curb, will go out of their way to smash it. When they understand that fun of this character means the price of a new bicycle out of their own pockets, they will take a little pains to drive around and not over a resting bicycle. The bicycle men and the horsemen have exactly the same rights on the street, and each must exercise those rights so as not to interfere with the other's.—Philadelphia Press.

ODD SPOKES.

Many of the old ordinary wheels are now sold secondhand for $2 each.

A wheel guaranteed to produce 50 per cent less profanity than any other is advertised.

With knee breeches universally worn the bicycle rider would be saved the trouble of changing every day.

The Philadelphia police department is considering the idea of having the lieutenants and sergeants mounted on wheels.

The New York Tribune's cycling editor declares that $100 is an absurdly high price to charge for a bicycle of even the best make.

Two Englishmen recently crossed the channel from Dover to Calais in a tandem "cyclo" boat, doing 30 miles in 7 hours and 15 minutes.

Sweaters with wide sailor collars, edged with stripes of red, white or blue, are the newest wrinkles in that line. The collars are worn outside the coat.

Do you want to know whether your saddle is at the proper angle? If so, ride a mile or more with only one hand on the bars; this will cause you to shift about in the saddle if it is not at the proper angle.

It used to be, when friends from town were invited to visit country houses, "We will send a carriage for you," but now it is, "You will find a bicycle with our card on it awaiting you at the railway station."

According to the 1895 standard of speed, a mile under 2 minutes 30 seconds is fair, 2 minutes 20 seconds good, under 2 minutes 10 seconds fast. It is not until 2 minutes or better is reached that it becomes remarkable.

There is a crash raging just about now for 26 inch wheels, some riders even insisting on 24 inch wheels. The argument advanced is that small wheels are stiffer, less liable to get out of true and will stand harder shocks.

Temperate Riding For Novices.

The strained eyes, drawn lips and excessively flushed faces so often met with among the bicycle riders are nature's signals of distress. They indicate excessive exertion on the part of those who are often unfit for anything more than the gentlest exercise. In the case particularly of a young woman these indications should be observed with the gravest concern, and unless she can be induced to ride gently until some strength is accumulated her friends should compel her not to ride at all. When used temperately, the cycle is a splendid means of recreation and exercise, but if abused it is a veritable Juggernaut, capable of inflicting the most grievous injuries.—Chicago Times-Herald.

A Very Novel Pneumatic Tire.

A cycling device has just been patented in England that substitutes for the continuous tubular tire a series of rubber balls set in cups at the outer ends of the spokes. The balls are so connected that they may be simultaneously inflated. Several advantages are claimed for the device, one of them being that no serious inconvenience will follow the accidental puncturing of the tire. It is also claimed that there is a great saving of ground cohesion, or friction, and that this will increase the ease and speed of propulsion.—Philadelphia Times.

A Cash Chorus.

Now that foreign climes are no longer the El Dorado for American professionals that they once were, we may expect shortly to see Banker and the rest of the American brigade returning home chorusing:

My country, 'tis of thee,
Sweet Land of Liberty,
Of thee I sing.
—Wheel.

He Owns Eight Wheels.

The cycling craze has taken complete possession of whole families, and one man who owns a number of saddle horses says that he is going to get rid of them if he has to give them away, as he now owns seven wheels for his children and a tandem for himself and his wife.—New York Sun.

Never Too Old to Ride or Race.

Amos Holmes of Cicvilla, N. Y., 84 years old, has issued a challenge to any man of his age in the state to race for any number of miles on a bicycle.

CYCLISTS KNOWN TO FAME.

The king of Spain slightly injured his foot while riding a bicycle recently.

Mavroyeni Bey, the Turkish minister at Washington, is very fond of cycling and now and then rides in Turkish costume.

Emperor William, having mastered everything else in literature, science and art, has begun endeavoring to ride a bicycle.

Mrs. Lounsberry, who is the daughter of J. B. Haggin of Anaconda fame, rides as charmingly as she does everything else.

Calvin S. Brice, Jr., is said to be a very expert cyclist. His suit consists of a pair of Scotch plaid stockings, tan knickerbockers and a frock coat of tan, with blue tie and brown soft hat.

"I forget when I cycle that I am along in years—no, I don't mean that," corrected Mrs. Secretary Carlisle a few days ago. "But—well, to put it more diplomatically—that I have a husband whose hair is white as a grandfather's."

Miss Ellen Terry, the famous actress, is an enthusiastic cyclist. "On every opportunity I get," she says, "I ride miles and miles and find it helpful to me in thinking out and studying the many arduous parts I have to play." No one has yet been able to induce Miss Terry to adopt the rational dress.

Lady Norreys does not approve of the rational costume for wheeling. She says: "I think it perfectly horrible, and I think there is a strong feeling against it. Lady Dudley, Lady Wolverton, Lady Lurgan, all cycle, but I am sure not one of them would appear on her machine without a skirt over her knickerbockers."

Ex-Governor W. E. Russell of Massachusetts disappointed thousands of cyclists in his own state and elsewhere when he gave to the Boston press his letter of refusal to accept the L. A. W. presidential nomination. Mr. Russell is an enthusiastic cyclist, but the only presidency he has any use for is of another kind.

FAIR DEVOTEES OF CYCLING.

Fate has decreed that the bicycle girl in bloomers shall become a spinster, observes the Salt Lake Tribune.

The bloomer gives to a shapely woman, says the Galveston News, a great opportunity; in fact, two of them.

A Boston girl started on a trip around the globe and before she had gone 1,200 miles she received 85 proposals, she says.

If "equal rights" means anything, it means a man's right to keep out of the way of a woman who is just learning to ride a wheel, says the New York Mail and Express.

Chief Badenoch of Chicago punishes rowdies who assault women in bloomers. He shows gentlemanly instinct. The question of what is a proper costume for a woman is not to be settled by rowdies on the street.

The women of Onaburg, O., set their dogs on a Canton wheelwoman because she wore bloomers, says the Cleveland World. The women of a Connecticut town about 40 years ago gave one of their sex an order to leave town when she put on the first hoopskirt they ever saw. In six months they were all wearing them.

The Bicycle's "Personal Devil."

The Rev. J. B. Hawthorne of Atlanta, in a recent sermon against the wheelwoman, thus refers to an innocent road ride by the Christian Endeavorers to the historical places surrounding Boston: "Recently," said Mr. Hawthorne, "a great religious convention in an eastern city concluded its exercises by a bicycle race on the streets between 700 men, women and preachers. Could anything less than a personal devil have instigated such a performance?"

We quite agree with Mr. Hawthorne that no one but the devil would be guilty of starting 700 men, women and preachers in a race through such crooked streets as Boston possesses. At the same time, however, it is pertinent to observe that no one but the devil or Mr. Hawthorne could be responsible for this story, no race of any such kind ever having taken place in Boston or elsewhere.—Wheel.

A Pug Dog In the Baby Carrier.

Among the sights of the Oranges is a young woman of East Orange, who, on almost every fair day, can be seen taking her daily spin on her wheel in knickerbockers, with a pug dog comfortably seated on the baby carrier in the front of the machine. The turnout attracts a great deal of attention.—New York Tribune.

A High Gear Defined.

"Paw, what is a high gear on a bicycle?"

"Nowadays, my son, it is simply a ready excuse for the rider when he becomes fagged on a long run, or is beaten in a sprint up hill, down hill, on the level and almost anywhere else."—Wheel.

Good Old Roads and Washington Calves.

The bicycle will unquestionably give us back in the end the good old roads that preceded the death of the stagecoach. If it also gives us the fine old knickerbockers and calves of George Washington, it will add still more to our gratitude.—New York Tribune.

The Wheel Output For 1896.

This year will probably result in the making and selling of fully 400,000 wheels. Next year will see an increase of at least 250,000 in the output, which will place the total issue of 1896 at 650,000 wheels.—American Wheelman.

Paris and the Cycling Rage.

In Paris an average of 1 out of every 73 people ride bicycles. It is estimated that 1 out of every 30 of those physically capable ride.

Mr. A. H. Cransby, of No. 38 Kerr St., Memphis, Tenn., writes that his wife had cancer which had eaten two large holes in her breast, and which the best physicians of the surrounding country treated, and pronounced incurable. Her grandmother and aunt had died of and when told this, the most eminent specialists of New York, under whose treatment she was placed, declared her case was hopeless. All treatment having failed, she was given up to die. S. S. S. was recommended, and astonishing as it may seem, a few bottles cured her sound and well.

Couldn't Stand Upright.

June 11th, 1894.

THE DR. J. H. McLEAN MEDICINE CO., St. Louis, Mo.

GENTLEMEN: For about ten years I suffered with a pain in my back which I thought was caused by a strain. Sometimes it got so bad I could not stand upright or ride in my buggy. I read in your almanac of symptoms that I recognized as my own, which led me to the conclusion that my trouble was disease in the kidneys. I immediately began using

Dr. J. H. McLEAN'S LIVER AND KIDNEY BALM.

It proved to be the right medicine and reached the spot. I soon lost all pain and have better health than ever before. It is more than a year now since I quit using it and have not had a pain or sick day in all that time. It is certainly a wonderful medicine for the kidneys.

Yours truly,

Man and Lion Dead.

Fred Walton, a stockman of Presidio county who arrived at San Antonio, Tex., recently, states that two sheep herders were passing along a mountain trail, when they came upon the mangled remains of Thomas Derton, a well known ranchman of the county. There was a trail of blood leading away from the body, and they followed it for a distance of 200 yards, when they came upon the dead body of a large mountain lion. It was plain that the man and beast had had a fight to the death. The lion was covered with knife wounds, and it was evident that the battle had been a fierce one.—St. Louis Globe-Democrat.

A very important business meeting of the young people of the Church of Christ will be held at the church tonight.

Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Brooks, of Huntington, will arrive in the city tonight to attend the funeral of their grandmother, Mrs. C. Brooks.

Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Davis, of 125 Harrison street, have returned home, after visiting with relatives and friends for three weeks in Adrian, Mich.

Messrs. Fred Grafle, Otto Klinkenberg and A. H. Staub left today for Hartford City and Montpelier to look after their interests in the oil field.

Wm. F. Meyer, formerly of the firm of Meyer & Niemeyer, is preparing to open a gents' furnishing store at the corner of Broadway and Jefferson street.

The Decatur Democrat says: "Dr. Numbers and wife left for Fort Wayne Saturday, where they will spend a few days with Mrs. Beers, a sister of the doctor."

Division No. 1 of the A. O. H. will go to Muncie on September 8 to attend the dedicatory exercises of the Catholic church. The City band will accompany them.

The Labor day races at Huntington promise to be exciting. Messrs. Block, Peltier, Heiler, Goff, Cobagen, Alter and Groenich, of Fort Wayne, will compete. Fred Blalsing, of New Haven, will also start. A. L. Randall will be the referee.

The Logansport Reporter says: "Charley Selgmund, of Pilling's shoe store, is taking a week's vacation at Fort Wayne. His wife will join him there today.—Dr. Wagner, of Fort Wayne, formerly Panhandle physician here, is in the city for a day or two."

Yesterday's Kendallville Standard says: "Misses Grace and Daisy Davis, of Fort Wayne, who have been spending the summer at Rome City, spent Sunday in this city, the guests of Miss Minnie Gapplnger. They returned to Rome City this afternoon.—Miss Libbie Brosch, of Fort Wayne, is home on a short visit."

A Young People's Society of Christian Endeavor was organized Sunday afternoon at the North Side mission and the following officers were elected: President, Fred Barthold; vice president, Miss Lottie Bischoff; secretary, Charles Heathman; treasurer, Miss Myrtle Weaver. Cottage prayer meetings will be held every Tuesday evening.

These personal items are taken from last evening's Huntington Herald: "Misses Dolla and Bessie Rich, of Fort Wayne, were guests of their cousin, Landlord Shepler, of the Exchange, today. They were en route home from a visit in Ohio.—Miss May Studor, who has been the guest of the Misses Guzman, returned to her home in Fort Wayne yesterday."

Robert McCullough, the night distributing clerk at the postoffice, and W. E. Cumins, one of the mail carriers, left Sunday evening for a two weeks' vacation tour through the eastern states. They will visit at New York, Boston, Washington and Garwood, N. J., during their absence. At the latter place they will be the guests of Will Griswold, formerly of this city.

Concerning Evangelist Chapman, who is to hold a series of union revival services in this city during the fall, the Warsaw Daily Times of last evening says: "The union services held at the opera house, and addressed by Evangelist Chapman, on Sunday evening, was an immense affair, the house being crowded to its utmost capacity, both below and in the gallery. Indeed the attendance was so great, and so many failed to gain an entrance into the opera house, that an "overflow" meeting was held in the M. E. church, near by. Evangelist Chapman preached a powerful discourse, and was listened to with deep attention. The Rev. Sunday, known as the ex-base ball revivalist, preached to the overflow audience, and convinced all present of his ability as a speaker."

Louis Centlivre went to Toledo this morning.

The Home lodge, No. 342, F. & A. M., will meet tonight.

D. W. Webster and wife, of Osceola, Iowa, are visiting in the city.

A picnic was given by the Maumee Solo club Sunday at Harlman's grove.

The Misses Jennie and Jessie Scott are visiting friends at Chicago and Milwaukee.

Mrs. Francis Malloy is in New York city purchasing her fall stock of millinery goods.

Mrs. Stuart Rehrer is visiting her brother and attending the street fair at Peru this week.

There will be a business meeting of the Y. P. S. C. E. of the Third Presbyterian church this evening.

Daniel Nestle moved to this city fifty-six years ago today and has been a resident of Fort Wayne ever since.

Degree of Honor No 11 will hold a social at the residence of Mrs. Chinworth, corner of Spy Run and Prospect avenues, tomorrow evening.

The mission fest of the St. Paul, Emanuel and Zion Lutheran churches will be celebrated next Sunday at the grounds of the Concordia college.

The South Bend Times boasts that the St. Joseph river was higher last Saturday than for months. A big rain fell along this stream on last Friday night.

A bright-eyed little baby daughter has arrived at the home of Mr. and Mrs. George H. Krudop, 9 Eliza street. Mr. Krudop is the well known east side coal dealer.

Miss Gertrude Wefel, of 61 St. Martin's street, is this afternoon observing the eleventh anniversary of her birth, by entertaining a number of her schoolmates at tea.

The Misses Carrie and Regina Grafle, of 178 Ewing street, gave a high tea last evening in honor of Mrs. Charles Grafle's sister, Mrs. Charles Taylor and daughter, of Antego, Wis.

The Sunshine Bearers will give a social at the corner of Washington and Jackson streets Thursday evening, August 29. A city paper said the social would take place Wednesday evening, which was a mistake.

The regular meeting of the Woman's Missionary society of the U. B. church will be held next Friday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock at the church. All members are urged to be present as there is important business to be attended to.

Ora E. Mohler, the managing editor of the Gazette, is at Huntington today in attendance on the birthday anniversary celebration of his father who has reached the age of seventy-four. Mr. Mohler's father is one of the most esteemed citizens of Huntington.

Last Sunday the G. R. social club was entertained at the home of Miss Clara Zimmerman at South Fairfield avenue. The club is composed of the following members: Sophia Jacobs, Anna Thain, Clara Zimmerman, Trena Immel, Anna Weber and Julia Koenlein.

A very pretty surprise was held at Miss Anna Rodemeyer's home, 325 East Washington street, last Sunday evening. A very large crowd was present. The quartet entertained the crowd with singing and music. A fine supper was served at 12 o'clock. They stayed till a late hour.

The city council will meet in regular session tonight. A petition will be presented from the citizens of South Wayne, asking that that part of the city may be made the Eleventh ward. Fred Schultz will ask that the council pay him $37.72, withheld at the time he constructed a sewer for the city in 1887.

The following building permits have been granted: Robert Shalhammer, to erect a one story frame house in Glasser's sub division to cost $1,000; Thomas Bayer, to erect a two story frame house in Beck's addition to cost $700; Mrs. Applinger, to repair stone house, in Tressell's addition, at an expense of $150.

Tomorrow evening at their hall, corner Calhoun and Superior streets, Summit City lodge No. 36, A. O. U. W., will give an entertainment and ice cream social. As this is good ice cream weather, no doubt the attendance will be large. The following program will be rendered:

F. W. Quackenbush, State Manager for the U. B. and Mutual Aid Society of Pennsylvania:

DEAR SIR:—I desire to convey my gratitude and unbounded satisfaction, through you, to the U. B. Mutual Aid Society of Pennsylvania for the prompt settlement of my claim of $1,000 in full, upon the life of my late husband, Michael Ryan, deceased.

The courteous treatment and speedy payment of this loss, in this hour of my bereavement, assures me that entire confidence can be placed in the fidelity of the society to fulfill all its promises, and I cheerfully add my testimonial to its worth and usefulness, and unhesitatingly recommend it to all seeking insurance.

Again thanking you and the society, I am yours very sincerely,

MATILDA RYAN.

P. S.—Mr. Ryan's policy was dated April 13, 1895. He paid only two quarterly premiums.

I hereby return my heartfelt thanks to the doctors, especially to the professors, of the Medical college, and all who so kindly rendered assistance during my late affliction in the death of my husband.

JUMPED OFF AN ENGINE.

Willie Foster Receives Painful Injuries to His Head.

The Pennsylvania Will Adopt Electricity on its Brunswick and Millstone Branch—Local Affairs.

William Fosler, the young son of Section Foreman Christian Fosler, of the Wabash, was seriously injured a short distance west of Fairfield avenue, at 3:30 o'clock yesterday afternoon. The lad climbed upon a new engine, which Engineer John Carroll had out on its trial trip, and when it began to move along pretty lively Willie became frightened and jumped off. When his feet struck the gravel the impetus carried him forward, and his head coming in contact with the ties, he was knocked senseless. He was picked up by the railway men and taken to Dr. Euslen's office. The lad's scalp was badly cut and torn and it took several stitches to close the gashes. The knees, elbows and hands of the boy were also painfully bruised and skinned, but these injuries will not prove serious. Christian Fosler resides at 76 Taylor street.

HORSESHOE CURVE TO BE BEAUTIFIED.

Before next summer the beauties of the famous horseshoe curve, on the Pennsylvania road will be greatly enhanced by an immense artificial lake, which is to be created by means of a large impounding dam, work on which is now in progress. Two objects are effected by the construction of the dam. One is to secure an ample supply of water for Altoona, and one which will never fail, but in doing this the effect this large body of water will have on the scenery of Kittanning Point was also considered. It will be the largest basin of water in the state of Pennsylvania, covering thirty-two acres of ground, with an average depth of twentysix feet, the capacity of the basin being 350,000,000 gallons of water. The Pennsylvania joins with the city in construction, as it will be of great value to the railroad company in supplying its locomotives at Altoona with water, and also its immense shops at that point.

BRIEF MENTION.

George Wood went to Chicago last night on business for the electric works.

J. S. Evans, superintendent of telegraph of the Nickel Plate, was in the city yesterday.

The electric works this morning shipped two sixty-light dynamos to New Castle, Pa.

Supt. J. B. Barnes, of Springfield, Ill., is in the city on business connected with the Wabash.

Joseph Bushing, of the Bass works has returned from Toledo and this morning resumed work.

W. F. Patton, who was visiting his parents in South Whitley, has resumed his run on the Nickel Plate road.

This afternoon Al. Bender left for Philadelphia, where he has secured a position with an electric lighting company.

John C. Koegel, Ed. Klett, Chris. Seibold and Andy Thaine made a run on their wheels Sunday to Auburn and return.

William Hulse, who was visiting here a week, returned to Baltimore yesterday, where he is employed in the electric works.

G. H. Wilcox and John Murphy, painters in the Pittsburg shops, are sick. The latter is the son of Foreman Sam Murphy.

George Klingenberger, moulder at the Bass works, is suffering with a severe attack of rheumatism, and is unable to work.

Amil Rost has quit railroading and returned to wheelmaking. This morning he took a position in the Olds Wagon works.

Ben Pettit has returned from Mackinac Island, fully restored to health, and this morning he resumed his old position in the electric works, after an absence of several months. Mr. Pettit was suffering with rheumatism.

W. E. Lindoerfer, machinist in the Wabash shops at Ashley, Ind., is the guest of Machinist J. C. Gehring, of the shops in this city.

Dispatcher P. J. Raidy, of the Pennsylvania offices, and his mother went to Columbia City this morning to spend the day with friends.

Mr. and Mrs. M. B. Volz will go to Chicago next Saturday to spend a week with friends. Mr. Volz is employed in the Pittsburg shops.

Mrs. Ed. Mundt, wife of the electrician in the Pittsburg shops, and her children went to New Haven this morning to stay a week.

The Chicago and Erie railroad is erecting additions to its shops at Huntington, Ind., enlarging the boiler shops and the tank repairing rooms.

Nickel Plate Engineer F. P. Sleeper will be the guest of his wife's parents, near Boston, for the next thirty days. He left for that city last night.

Miss Emilie Tyler, telegrapher at the Wabash offices, who has been in West Lebanon, Ind., for the past three weeks, will return home this week.

W. H. Babcock, father of O. L., the street car conductor, is visiting in Cooperstown, N. Y. He writes that the fruit crop in that state is a failure.

Hugh Wilson, a Nickel Plate train dispatcher, has returned from Maxinkuckee, where he was spending a vacation with a party of friends from Huntington.

Owing to the illness of Mrs. Cairnes, wife of Foreman Frank Cairnes, of the erecting department, Pittsburg shops, that gentleman is unable to attend to his shop duties.

After a month's outing at Clear Lake, Engineer George Cooper is again manipulating the throttle of a Nickel Plate engine. His family was with him at the lake.

John F. Naylor, yard clerk at the Wabash, is enjoying his annual visit with his parents in Ohio this week, and George F. R. Freeby is looking after the clerical duties.

Contractor Henry Hilgeman is putting the finishing touches upon Frank Tilbury's nine room house on Columbia avenue. The building is one of the neatest and most convenient in Lakeside.

The whitewashing machine is now engaged in beautifying the interior of the shops east of Lafayette street, the last to be whitewashed. Next week the whitewasher will be taken to Chicago.

J. H. Fry, chief clerk in the office of the Pennsylvania company and secretary of the Fort Wayne club, completed his summer outing in northern Michigan last week and is at his desk again.

Wabash train No. 43 will have a special car attached to it Sunday night for the accommodation of about fifty of our citizens, who are going to Indianapolis to participate in the Labor day celebration.

Members of the American Ticket Brokers' association have received notice that H. D. Smith, of Detroit, and A. J. Morton, of Findlay, Ohio, have been expelled for alleged violations of the rules of the association.

The report of the receivers of the Northern Pacific railroad for the year ending June 30, 1895, shows gross earnings, $17,434,931; decrease, $467,005; net earnings, $6,115,209; increase, $963,864. Surplus, $535,974, against a deficiency of $1,291,351 in 1894.

Gabriel R. Duvall, superintendent of the dining car service of the Baltimore and Ohio, died at Atlantic City on Friday of meningitis. He had been with the Baltimore and Ohio sixteen years, and for eight years had held the position above mentioned.

Engineer James Jones and Fireman James Furlong now run one of the most handsome freight engines on the Third district of the Nickel Plate. It is No. 26, which has just been turned out of the Stony Island shops after being thoroughly repaired and repainted.

There were twenty-five Fort Wayne citizens on Wabash train No. 45, which left this city at 3 o'clock this morning. The party were en route to Peru, where a street fair is in progress this week. Today is "governor's day" and Governor Matthews and his staff are in attendance at the fair.

Yard Foreman Herman Brandt and Robert Renfrew, of the Rhinesmith & Simonson factory, drove out to Everett Lake Sunday and shortly after their return home the horse, which belonged to Mr. Renfrew, laid down and died. This is another evidence of the necessity of an electric line to Everett Lake.

The excursion business is nearly ended for this season, and this week there are only two announced. One is the Bortons, to Plymouth, tomorrow, and the other is that of the Y. M. C. A. to Eagle Lake next Thursday. On Monday, September 2, the Butcher's union will have an excursion to Rome City.

The Pennsylvania is preparing to put in service the trolley system on its new Brunswick and Millstone branch, the equipment to be the same as the Mount Holly division, and at no remote date the company will, it is stated, trolley its Newton Square branch westward from Fernwood.

The Knights Templar commanderies, in passing over the New York Central, are not allowed to carry decorations on the cars they occupy. Some years ago the New York Central had to pay heavy damages for injury to a passenger caused by a banner, and since then the above rule has been enforced.

President Ingalls, of the Big Four, has given instructions to the effect that, wherever possible, if a married man is killed in the company's employ his wife or children, if old enough, should be given employment to aid in supporting the family. A number of wives of deceased employes, under the order, are now in the company's service.

The Pennsylvania road proper owes much of its prosperity to its feeders west of Pittsburg. But for the Pittsburg, Fort Wayne and Chicago, the Panhandle and other western feeders its business would be cut down at least 60 per cent. The parent line gathers an immense freight and passenger traffic from its roads scattered over twelve western states.

Mr. E. D. Kenna, who for years has been general attorney for the St. Louis and San Francisco Railroad company, with headquarters in St. Louis, has been appointed general solicitor of the Atchison, Topeka and Santa Fe system. He will on September 15, succeed Mr. Geo. R. Peck, who resigned to accept a similar position with the Chicago, Milwaukee and St. Paul railway.

The fishing party, composed of a number of Pennsylvania railway men, which has been spending a ten days' vacation at Snow Island, will leave for this city tomorrow. This morning Dispatcher Charles LaRue received a letter from one of the party, stating that they had that morning caught 232 fish. The letter failed to state, however, whether the fish were bass, pickeral or minnows.

Knights of the Maccabees.

The state commander writes us from Lincoln, Neb., as follows: "After trying other medicines for what seemed to be a very obstinate cough in our two children, we tried Dr. King's New Discovery and at the end of two days the cough entirely left them. We will not be without it hereafter, as our experience proves that it cures where all other remedies fail."—Signed, F. W. Stevens, State Com.—Why not give this great medicine a trial, as it is guaranteed and trial bottles are free, at Dreier & Bro.'s drug store. Regular sizes, 50c and $1.00.

It May Do as Much for You.

Mr. Fred Miller, of Irving, Ill., writes that he had a severe kidney trouble for many years, with severe pains in his back and also that his bladder was affected. He tried many so-called kidney cures, but without any good result. About a year ago he began use of Electric Bitters and found relief at once. Electric Bitters is especially adapted to the cure of all kidney and liver troubles and often gives almost instant relief. One trial will prove our statements. Price only 50c for large bottle. At Dreier & Bro.'s drug store.

A NEW CITIZEN TRAIN.

The Hair of the Philosopher of Madison Square Getting Black.

A remarkable change is coming over George Francis Train, the sage of Madison square. His bronzed face and leonine head, with its mass of snow white hair, may soon be a thing of the past, for youth is upon him again, and his locks are turning black. The change began about a month ago, he says, and was noticed first by one of the youngsters who find in him so staunch a friend.

With this comes another change in the man who built the Pacific railway; who established the first line of clipper ships to Australia and China, and who had $90,000 a year income, made by himself, before he was 20 years old. His eccentricities, so called, are not as marked as formerly. He is doing a lot of thinking, and in a circular he has recently sent about the world is a quotation concluding as follows:

"When Train concludes to become sane."

His ownership to a great tract of land in the center of the city of Omaha is claimed by many of the best real estate lawyers in the country.

When asked about the rejuvenation and the possibilities of his re-entrance into public life, Mr. Train said: "Curious, isn't it, about my hair? I may, as my friends hope, decide to assert my rights to my property. As to public life, what is it? I have been through it. Many of the greatest men of the times—Bulwer, Victor Hugo, Lincoln and Seward—were my intimate friends. They have gone. I am content to rest as I am. Still, I am as young and well as ever. The future may mean much or little to me. We shall see."—New York World.

CORN TO BURN!

Eli Perkins Thinks the Crop Will Bring $900,000,000.

After traveling through Illinois, Iowa, Missouri, Kansas and Nebraska Eli Perkins passed through Chicago recently. When questioned about the corn crop, he said:

"We will have corn to burn. Recently the best judges estimated the crop at 3,000,000,000 bushels, but when I got to Lincoln, Neb., I found the only bad corn in the country. I found a section which should raise 100,000,000 bushels destroyed. It was already burned."

"Can you bound the section?"

"Yes; draw a line from St. Joseph, Mo., to Columbus, Neb., and all that triangular section of this line to within 20 miles of the Missouri is dried up—ruined."

"What will the crop be worth?"

"At 25 cents a bushel it will bring $900,000,000. Now," continued Mr. Perkins, "compare this corn crop with the cotton crop. Last year the south raised 9,000,000 bales of cotton, for which the farmer got $25 a bale, or $225,000,000. A bale of cotton is worth about the same as an Iowa hog. No single man in the south can make over eight bales of cotton. What would be the poverty of an Iowa farmer with only eight hogs to show in the fall?

"Then think how many people this corn crop would feed in China and Japan, where four bushels of millet, barley or rice is a year's ration. Why, our corn crop would feed 625,000,000 people!"—Chicago Times-Herald.

Old Postage Stamps.

In philately many harmless persons still find recreation and some dealers substantial profit. During the season for the sale by auction of rare postage stamps, which seems to be just now drawing to a close, one firm alone has disposed of specimens of the aggregate value of £20,000. Messrs. Ventom, Bull & Cooper, who hold the record, took £1,281 at their last sale, and the lots included a collection of 3,100 varieties, which fetched £210; a pair of New Zealand, watermark "N. Z.," 1d. brown, which sold for £32; a Finland, errors, 5p. and 10p., for which £50 was obtained, and a block of four Great Britain, 1854, 6d. violet, unused, which realized £26.—London Telegraph.

What We May Expect.

(Congress in the year 2000.) The bloomer party was debating on its suffrage bill in a manner that showed the men party that if something wasn't done soon their cause would be a lost one. The grim visaged senator from New York whispered something into the ear of the page standing near him who then went to the rear of the hall. Just as the bloomer party was about to call a quorum a voice yelled, "A mouse!" (Press dispatch. "Congress adjourned.")—Syracuse Post.

The Only Woman Sheriff.

Mrs. Helen C. Stewart, formerly a resident of New Jersey, has been appointed sheriff of Green county, Mo. Although many women have held various offices in the western states, Mrs. Stewart is the only woman in the United States who ever held the office of sheriff.—New York World.

Room For It.

"Yes," said the humorous writer as he glanced at the balloon environment of his sister's arm, "yes, there should be room in a woman's sleeve for at least one more joke."—Boston Transcript.

Cycle Slang.

What a lot of slang verbiage has grown up out of the bicycle. The youth who talks boastfully and erratically is called down by the apt suggestion of the bicycle young woman with the remark, "Freddie, your lamp is out." The "road-hog" is borrowed from old New England nomenclature, but "scorching" is of the bicycle's own lingo, and means an undue haste in driving a wheel. The exhausted bicyclist on the road and needing refreshments, suggests, "Let's stop here and pump up," referring to the fagged condition of the pneumatic. Bicycle girls are "Bloomers," and "here comes my bloomer" is equivalent to here comes my girl. A policeman is "a header," and the cyclometer is "the ticker." "He has lost his tire" is equivalent to "having bicks in your head" or "being off your trolly," and no doubt there is plenty more of the same.—Lewiston Journal.

The readers of this paper will be pleased to learn that there is at least one dreaded disease that science has been able to cure in all its stages and that is catarrh. Hall's Catarrh Cure is the only positive cure now known to the medical fraternity. Catarrh being a constitutional disease, requires a constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure is taken internally, acting directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system, thereby destroying the foundation of the disease, and giving the patient strength by building up the constitution and assisting nature in doing its work. The proprietors have so much faith in its curative powers, that they offer One Hundred Dollars for any case that it fails to cure. Send for list of Testimonials. Address, F. J.
